Reported: 12/01/2011.   | I was dispatched to Virginia and Baker in reference to a possible domestic violence between a black female and a black male. I arrived and observed the female, IO, walking northbound across an open lot toward Iowa St. I went around the block and stopped the IO in the unit block of W. Iowa. The IO said she had been arguing with the father of her children, but there was nothing physical. I then observed the male, suspect, walking north on Main St. from Iowa on the west side of the road. The IO said she was okay and there was no violence. I told her I was just going to go talk to the suspect. I pulled my marked police cruiser onto N. Main from Iowa St. and observed the suspect walking in the 700 block of N. Main. I pulled up behind the suspect as he was walking. I exited my police car and asked the suspect to stop. The suspect turned westbound and continued walking. I once again told him to stop and he continued to walk, but the paced picked up. I told the suspect not to run, but at this time he took off running west between the buildings and then turned north in the alley. I advised dispatch the suspect was running and put out a description of the suspect. The suspect continued running and was observed by Sgt. Nutt in the 800 block of Baker. Sgt. Nutt watched the suspect run north on Baker crossing the park at Baker and Maryland. Several other officers arrived in the area. We were given information from a witness, that did not want to get involved, that the suspect had ran into 112 W. Oregon. We knocked on the door at this address with no answer. The IO walked up to the address. She called the suspect and talked to him. She let officer Hassler also talk to him, and he eventually came out of the house at 112 W. Oregon and was placed in custody. |                |  |
