The victim then said that the offender picked up a landscape rock that is about the size of a football. The offender then reportedly threw it at the front, living room window. The window was broken when I, Officer W. Arbaugh, arrived. The rock did not go inside the home but was laying below the broken glass outside. There was no other damage to the property or the victim's possessions. The offender has previously resided in Tennessee and was observed by the victim leaving in a mid 90's, white, Cheverolet Suburban. The Cheverolet was reported to have Tennessee license plates with two unknown female passengers. I searched the area but did not see any white Cheverolets in the area or Tennessee license plates. There were no witnesses besides the victim. The victim and the offender have been in an argument since November concerning the victim's boyfriend. The victim's boyfriend was previously in a relationship with the offender. The victim also said that she is receiving threats daily by email and Facebook from the offender. The victim states that she has saved all of the emailed threats. The victim further stated that the offender has been seen many times revving the engine of her Suburban outside her home. Both OF and VI have been involved previously as OF and VI concerning this ongoing argument (see cases 11-24863 and 11-24665). The victim was given a case number to give to her landlord for damages to the window. The victim was also advised on how to follow up with the prosecutor's office concerning Criminal Mischief and Harassment. The victim was also advised not to contact the offender.	Burton, Krystal Monique (B F, 24) VICTIM of Battery-hff Domestic [am] (C), at 677 Cross St, Evansville, IN, between 01:40, 12/20/2011 and 01:45, 12/20/2011. LW 1126453 Battery-simple Assault [bm]	Officers responded to the 677 Cross for a domestic violence report with the suspect still on scene. The victim and suspect were both waiting for officers in the street in the 600 block of Cross. The victim said she is pregnant with the suspect's child. They each have their own residence but they stay together often. The victim said she confronted the suspect about some of her money being missing. The suspect denied taking it. The victim described engaging in mutual combat with the suspect after his response. She said she did not care if he went to jail but she would be calling the prosecutor to press charges tomorrow. She said he bit her on her shoulders, but there were no marks of any kind there. She was wearing a tank top shirt which made it easy to see. We asked if she was injured anywhere else and she replied, "no". She refused an Ambulance. The suspect was cooperative and agreed to stay at his apartment tonight and not go back over to the victim's home. The suspect said the victim is just mad at him because another woman is trying to talk to him. The victim was given a case number and advised how to follow up with the prosecutor. Victim advised she was awakened by the offender knocking on her door. The verbal dispute became physical when the offender struck the victim in the left side of the face and in the mouth. The victim advised the offender did not hit her hard enough to draw blood and refused treatment. The offender was able to take the victims ADP card that had a dollar on it, her identification card, and ten dollars in cash. Before leaving the offender poured a can of coke over on the victim and then left in a burgandy vehicle. The victim also stated that during the incident the offender advised her that she had better go ahead and get a restraining order because the next time he saw her he would mess her up. The victim was given a case number and advised to contact the prosecutors office. The victim and offender use to date but are no longer involved in a relationship.
