LW 1125612 Battery-inj Vic/ Emp Of Sch [df]	Lipford, Penny J. (W F, 58) VICTIM of Battery-inj Vic/ Emp Of Sch [df] (C), at 917 S Dexter Ave, Evansville, IN, between 08:45, 12/08/2011 and 10:00, 12/08/2011. Reported: 12/08/2011. The suspect became belligerent and refused to stop screaming and banging after being told, hit multiple times, and then resisted when I attempted to take him to my car,		DEEG, D. E.
LW 1125619 Weapon-poss Knife In School [bm]	Society VICTIM of Weapon-poss Knife In School [bm] (C), at 3013 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, on 12/08/2011, 12:42. Reported: 12/08/2011. AIS student was found to be in possession of a knife on school property		WHITLER, K. A.
LW 1125618 Narc-poss Sch I,ii,iii,iv [df]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Sch I,ii,iii,iv [df] (C), at 2633 Sterling Dr, Evansville, IN, between 12:02, 12/08/2011 and 12:30, 12/08/2011. Reported: 12/08/2011. Officers were dispatched to 2633 Sterling drive apt 8. The witness, was calling about the father of her baby being there and going through her things and that suspect had "weed and illegal pills on him in a baggy, and a stolen cell phone". Witness told the suspect she was calling the police and the suspect left. Witness gave a description of the suspect. He was wearing a black and white button up shirt and blue jeans. As I, Hartweck, pulled into the main drive of the apartment complex I saw a subject matching the suspect walking towards me talking on a cell phone. There was a black female following him. The suspect was holding the phone with his left hand. When the suspect saw me he was about 20 feet away from me. I saw the suspect reach into his right pants pocket with his right hand and throw an object to his right into the grass. As the object went through the air it separated into 2 objects. As I got out of the car I was about 8 feet away from the suspect. After seeing the suspect throw the unknown objects I handcuffed the suspect. Right after the suspect had thrown the object to the ground the witness yelled "he just threw it down", which I had seen. While handcuffing the suspect the witness had stopped and picked up the object that the suspect had thrown and gave it to me. Witness gave me a tied off baggy corner that contained a green leafy substance. Witness also gave me a tied off baggy corner that had numerous white oval pills in it. Suspect was transported to jail. At the jail I did a field test on the green leafy substance with a Duquenois-Levine Reagent test pouch. The substance tested positive for THC. The baggy and the contents weighed 6 grams. The baggy with the 10 oval white scored pills were inscribed with M363 on them. I then used the drug identification book to find what they were. They were identified as Lortabs. The items were placed in the drug mailbox out a the jail.		HARTWECK, A. C.

LW 1125603 Burglary-non Res [cf]	Snodgrass Floral Inc VICTIM of Burglary-non Res [cf] (C), at 4824 Lincoln Ave, Evansville, IN, between 18:20, 12/07/2011 and 07:20, 12/08/2011. Reported: 12/08/2011. Officer was dispatched to a commercial break-in report at 4824 Lincoln Ave. On arrival, I spoke with _____, the owner. An exterior door on the northwest corner of the business had pry marks by the locks. The suspect/suspects could not gain entry that way. The suspect/suspects then removed the window on the door, reached in and unlocked it. The suspect/suspects took a H/P computer with monitor and keyboard from the office. The cash box is left in a locked file cabinet. The key is left in another file cabinet. The suspect/suspects unlocked the file cabinet with the cash box and took the money. They then locked it back up and put the key back in its original place. They got one hundred dollars from the cash box. Both registers in the front of the business are left open at night. The suspect/suspects took two hundred dollars from each register. Crime scene was called out for pictures and fingerprints. The owner was given the case number. I was also told, on Sunday night the door had been left unlocked and around two hundred dollars was taken from the registers then. The owner did not call it in because the business had been left unlocked.		BROWN, D. R.

LW 1125604 Fc-fraud-credit Card [df]	Barker, Christopher Allan (W M, 31) VICTIM of Fc-fraud-credit Card [df] (C), at 5230 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 15:00, 10/25/2011 and 15:00, 11/12/2011. Reported: 12/08/2011. The reporter, manager at the Marathon 5230 N. First Ave., said she has an employee, suspect, fraudulently using the victim`s credit card to obtain cash. The reporter said Marathon has contacted her about fraudulent use of a credit card where the victim denied the charges on his credit card, and refuses to pay for them. The reporter discovered there have been nine cash advances from the victim`s credit card during the time frame of 102511-111211, and the suspect did all of the transactions. The reporter said the suspect enters in a pre-pay amount, and then does not pump the gas. She then does a cash advance for the amount of the pre-pay. The reporter thinks there are more incidents of fraudulent credit card use by the suspect. She has numerous receipts with the same actions. The interesting part of the report is that the suspect lives with the victim`s father, IO. The IO also works at the Marathon, but the reporter does not think he knows what the suspect is doing. The victim and the suspect`s husband, are in Branchville prison together. Apparently the suspect refused to pay for the charges, so Marathon contacted the manager about the fraudulent use. The reporter said she has the suspect on video doing the transactions, and receipts of the transactions.		SMITH, K. E.

Reported: 12/09/2011. Officer Hirshman was north bound on US HWY 41 when he observed a red Toyota Camry in front of him weaving from the right lane to the left and across the fog line to the right. Officer Hirshman went on to say the suspect vehicle would speed of to 55mph and then slow down. Officer Hirshman stated he followed the vehicle north bound from Lynch Rd to just north of St George doing this same pattern. Once north of St George, Officer Hirshman made a traffic stop on the vehicle. Officer Hirshman stated when he approached the driver and spoke to her, he smelt the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from her person. Officer Hirshman asked for a DUI grant car and I, Officer Hastings, was working that detail this night. I responded to Officer Hirshman's location and took over the investigation. I advised the suspect, later identified by her driver's license to be [redacted] that I would be conducting field sobriety tests on her. The suspect was first tested on the gaze nystagmus and failed. The suspect showed the lack of smooth pursuit, distinct sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation and onset of nystagmus prior to forty-five degrees. The suspect was then tested on the walk and turn. The suspect was given the instructions and stated she understood. The suspect failed the test by not staying in the starting position during instructions, not walking heel to toe on the way down or coming back, failed to negotiate the turn as instructed and stopped during the test after the turn. The suspect was then tested on the one leg stand and failed the test. The suspect was instructed on the test and stated she understood. The suspect started the test and stopped it after only counting to two. I advised the suspect to continue until I advised her to stop. The suspect then went to the count of four and lost her balance. The suspect was advised to continue and she dropped her foot two more times. At that moment, I stopped the suspect. The suspect was then tested on a PBT and showed a BrAC of .13% per 210 liters of breath. I read the suspect the Indiana Implied Consent Warning and the suspect stated she would take the test. I transported the suspect to the VCCC. Upon arrival, I tested the suspect on the BAC DataMaster inst#921059. The suspect failed the test with a BrAC of .11% per 210 liters of breath. The suspect was booked into the VCCC on her listed		HASTINGS, M. J.
