Reported: 02/09/2012. The reporter is the manager at Shell Cross Pointe Gas Station. The reporter noticed that the coin operated, air compressor on the property had been vandalized. The vending machine is located on the north east corner of the property. The front cover had been forced open and the machine was unlocked. The machine is displaying that it needs to be serviced and it appears that some of the wiring inside has been vandalized by being unplugged and disrupted. There was still $1.50 in quarters inside the machine and it does not appear that there was a theft of the coin vault. The reporter stated that Shell Cross Pointe owns the machine but that a third party company is responsible for maintenance and service to the machine. The reporter stated nobody at the store had seen anyone suspicious around the machine on today's date. All employees were certain the machine was locked and working correctly on the prior day. There was no evidence to process on scene. The reporter was going through surveillance video for a suspect but has not found anything at the time of the report. The reporter was given a case number for insurance and advised on how to follow up if they have any further information or video.		ARBAUGH, W. R.

Reported: 02/09/2012. Officers were dispatched to 15 NW MLK Jr Blvd in reference to a battery report. Once on scene, officers spoke with the victim, Arielle Alvey, and witness. Alvey stated her and the offender were in a verbal argument over a set of keys at their house located at 824 Jackson Ave. Alvey stated she had picked up the keys after the offender had taken them from her. Then the offender grabbed Alvey's left hand and began squeezing. This action broke several of her fake nails. Alvey stated the offender then pushed her into the wall using his forearm. The witness stated she observed all of the altercation except for the contact into the wall. Alvey stated there were two juveniles that were present at the time of the incident. The juveniles were not children of the offender. Alvey's nails were bruised, she had a small cut on her chest from the offender's fingernail, and her right tricep had redness. Alvey stated she has lived with the offender for approximately five months. Alvey was given a copy of the case number and advised how to follow-up with the Prosecutor's Office.		OFFERMAN, C. P.

LW 1202735 Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, < 30 G [am]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, < 30 G [am] (C), at 1600 S Kerth Ave/seale Ave, Evansville, IN, between 22:15, 02/09/2012 and 22:20, 02/09/2012. Reported: 02/09/2012. Officers dispatched to the 1600 block of S. Kerth in reference to a fight in progress. While en route dispatch advised the involved parties had baseball bats. I, M. Evans, arrived and saw two males walking northbound on Kerth approaching Seale. One of the males was carrying a long object in his right hand. The two males turned east onto Seale. I stopped the two males. As I approached OF1 I detected a strong odor of burnt marijuana on his clothing and he was no longer carrying the object I previously saw. I performed a pat down on OF1 (juvenile). During the pat down I felt a handgrip of a gun in the front of OF1 pants. I placed OF1 in handcuffs for officer safety and continued the pat down. I retrieved the gun from OF1's pants. The gun was a pump action style "BB" gun. Officer J. Clegg arrived and performed a pat down on IO1. While completing the pat down on OF1 I felt a knife in OF1 right front pants pocket, and a lump inside his right front watch pocket which I believed was narcotics due to my training, knowledge, and experience. I retrieved the lump from the watch pocket which was a baggy with a green leafy substance inside that I recognized to be marijuana. At this time I placed OF1 under arrest completed a search incident to arrest. In OF1 right front jacket pocket was a rolled "blunt" which smelled of marijuana. The green leafy substance later tested positive for THC. Field weight was 2.79 grams. OF1 was released into his stepfather's custody.		EVANS, M. C.
