We were told to go to the side door and go up the steps and that the apartment would be at the top of the steps. I entered the bottom stairwell door and went up the steps. The door at the top of the steps was standing open. I knocked on the open door and while knocking immediately detected the odor of burnt marijuana. A subject came into the kitchen and began speaking to me. He then yelled into the other room, "It's the cops you all!" In fear that evidence may be destroyed and the possibility that other individuals were present, I quickly entered the living room to perform a protective sweep. I saw a female (the suspect) quickly stuffing something under the couch. I asked her what she stuffed under the couch and she replied, "Nothing." The odor of burnt marijuana in the living room was overwhelming. I peered under the couch and saw what I believed to be a glass smoking pipe. I retrieved the pipe, which was still warm. It had what appeared to be burnt marijuana residue inside it. The suspect then admitted that she stuffed the pipe under the couch. Another subject in the apartment was arrested for a small amount of marijuana as well.
