During the search detectives recovered controlled substances and U.S. currency.		JOHNSON, T. D.
LW 1201287 Resist Law Enforcement [df]	Society VICTIM of Resist Law Enforcement [df] (C), at 6998 E Morgan Ave/cross Pointe Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 16:09, 01/19/2012 and 16:35, 01/19/2012. Reported: 01/19/2012. Officers were requested by narcotics detectives to make a traffic stop on a silver Dodge Avenger (IN 134BPO). The detectives advised the occupants of the vehicle had just bought and amount of Pseudoephedrine from the Walgreen at N Green River Rd and Lynch Rd. Detectives advised the suspect vehicle left going east on Lynch Rd. Detective Hensley caught up to the vehicle as it turned south on Burkhardt Rd from Lynch. Detective Hensley stated the operator of the vehicle was driving in a reckless manner. I, Officer Hastings, was attempting to catch up with Detective Hensley. Detective Hensley stated while they were stopped at the intersection of Burkhardt Rd and Morgan Ave, the suspect vehicle made an improper lane change and failed to signal as it went from the south bound left lane to the left turn lane to go east on Morgan Ave. I observed the vehicle going east and was able to get behind the vehicle at the intersection of Morgan Ave and Cross Point Blvd. I activated my emergency lights in order to stop the suspect vehicle just east of the I-164 overpass. The suspect vehicle failed to yield to my emergency lights and active siren. I advised dispatch that the suspect vehicle was fleeing north bound on I-164 from Morgan Ave. The suspect vehicle continued until it left the interstate to go east on Boonville-New Harmony Rd. The suspect vehicle was traveling between 60-65mph on the posted 40mph zone while on this road. The vehicle continued east until it turned south on Asbury Cemetery Rd. The suspect vehicle continued to travel at speeds between the posted speed limit and 60mph. The posted speed limit for Asbury Cemetery Rd is 30mph. The suspect vehicle had to slow down several times due to the large amount of dips in the roadway. The suspect vehicle continued south until it came upon Heim Rd. Once at Heim Rd the suspect vehicle failed to stop for the posted stop sign and turned west bound. The suspect vehicle then came to the intersection of Heim Rd and Stevenson Station Rd. The suspect vehicle then turned north bound onto Stevenson Station Rd failing to stop for the posted stop sign at the intersection. The suspect vehicle continued north on Stevenson Station Rd and then turned east onto Kansas Rd. The suspect vehicle continued east and failed to stop for the posted stop sign at Kansas Rd and Asbury Cemetery Rd. The suspect vehicle then drove onto a field entrance and started to stop due to a large cable blocking to road. The suspect driver, later identified as Joey Lee Young, jumped out of the moving vehicle and started running north through the field. I yelled for the suspect to stop and to come back to the vehicle, but he refused. I yelled at second time and the suspect stopped, turned around and then continued running north. The involved others (passengers) stayed in the vehicle and were taken into custody without incident by officers on scene. K9 Officer Z. Elfriech and his partner pursued the suspect on foot. After a short pursuit through an open field, Officer Elfriech's partner was able to apprehend the suspect. Officer Elfriech and Officer Matt Tevault (Chandler Police Department) secured the suspect and walked him back to the scene. I checked the suspect's driving history and to see if he was wanted. The suspect had a felony parole violation that was issued on the 01-18-12. Detective Hensley read the suspect his		HASTINGS, M. J.

I arrived and spoke to the reporting party Derek Sander (Tow Truck Driver for John's Towing) who stated that on today's date around 1330hrs he was dispatched to the area of the Twin Bridges to pull a truck out of the mud. Sanders stated that it took him from 1330hrs until around 1600hrs to winch out the truck. When done Sander stated the OF1 stated he did not have the money on him, but if Sanders would follow him to 2521 Washington Ave (Diamond Valley Credit Union) he would withdraw the $400.00 dollars he owed to John's towing. Sander stated he agreed to follow OF1 to the bank. Sanders stated that once at the bank OF1 pulled into the drive through and he could not fit so he backed out. Sander stated that when he got back around front OF1 was gone. OF1 gave Sander a fake name and address on the receipt that he signed. I ran the plate on the truck 1300371 Indiana truck plate, the plate returned to a different truck and listed OF1 as the owner for that plate. I pulled up the image of the registered owner for that plate and Sander identified the owner of the plate as the person who he winched out and followed to the bank. The truck VIN number returns to two other people. Sander stated that OF1 stated to him that he just purchased the truck recently and put his old plate on the truck until he registers the truck. Officers went by OF1's listed address and no one answered. Neighbors stated that an older lady named Patty stays at the address and she has a son that drives a truck that neighbors describe as the suspect vehicle. Neighbors stated that OF1 is always at this address. Officers checked with the property manager and she stated that Patricia Davis does live at the listed address and has for years and has a son that drives a beat up truck that comes over a lot.
