LW 1200096 Criminal Mischief Loss >$250 <$2500 [am]	Norvell, Michael L. (W M, 50) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief Loss >$250 <$2500 [am] (C), at 1804 E Morgan Ave, Evansville, IN, between 16:17, 01/02/2012 and 16:20, 01/02/2012. Reported: 01/02/2012. Officers were on scene of a domestic dispute when the juvenile suspect arrived. The suspect was upset that the victim had put his hands on the suspect's sister. The sister was not part of the original domestic dispute. The suspect was verbally loud and upset cussing the victim and trying to get into his house. The suspect's sister was trying to control the suspect, but was unsuccessful. I, Officer Hastings, told the suspect to quiet down and leave the address. The suspect continued to be loud and disorderly after being told to stop. The suspect then ran to the back of the house and I feared he was going to come inside to batter the victim. I had the victim's mother move to the dining room to get away from the back door. The suspect was unable to come in and continued to yell at the victim saying he was going to "Kick his ass!" The suspect starting hitting on the window next to the dinning room. When doing so, the window broke. I then went to detain the suspect as he ran back to the front of the house. The suspect then was at the front door yelling for the victim to come outside so he could fight him. I took the suspect into custody on the front porch and eventually transported the suspect to YCC. Prior to transporting the suspect to YCC, Officer Clegg stayed with the suspect while I got information from the victim. Officer Clegg advised while he was with the suspect, the suspect was threatening to hurt the victim. While enroute to the jail, the suspect voluntarily repeated several times that when he gets out he was going back to the victim's residence to "break his face". I advised the suspect he was barred from the address and would be arrested if he went back there. The suspect repeated his threat toward the victim. Once at YCC, I advised the correctional officer of the status of the suspect's mother. When the suspect heard his mother was locked up for DV battery on the victim, the suspect stated he was going to "KILL" the victim for locking his		HASTINGS, M. J.

LW 1200085 Burglary-res [bf]	Dillbeck, Anna Lynn (W F, 47) VICTIM of Burglary-res [bf] (C), at 314 N Third Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 01/01/2012 and 10:50, 01/02/2012. Reported: 01/02/2012.		KARGES, M. T.
	Officers took a Burglary report from 314 N Third Ave. The reporter stated he came home within the past hour and found his back door unlocked and his back fence open as well. The reporter noticed that his mother's bedroom door had a hole broken in it. When taking a further look the reporter found his mother's room had been gone through and some of her jewelry was laying out. On scene, I found the mother's room to have multiple dresser drawers standing open, the closet door on the east side of the room standing open, and a small jewelry box with jewelry inside laying out open as well. The reporter believes the suspect came in through the back door. The back door had a piece of drywall screwed to it covering a broken window. This piece of drywall was broken off and laying on the floor. It's believed the suspect broke the piece of drywall off the door and reached in to unlock the door. The reporter also noticed that the phone line was pulled out of the socket next to the same back door. The reporter believes that the suspect knowingly did this to prevent someone from using the phone upon his entry. Since the suspect knew where the mother's jewelry was located and knew where the phone line was, he believes the person he thinks committed the crime to officers is the suspect. The suspect apparently used to live at the residence with the mother as a friend and has stolen things from them before. The reporter stated the last person home was his mother sometime yesterday, but was unsure of what time in the evening it was. Officers informed the reporter that his mother would need to come home and verify all the items of hers that were stolen before officers could enter them as stolen property. He was given a case number and instructed on how to get a hold of officers for further information. The reporter had already been through the residence and plugged the phone line back in. The reporter was not sure of what items were taken but said his mother would know when she returned home later in the day.

LW 1200118 Traffic-operate While Htv For Life [cf]	Society VICTIM of Traffic-operate While Htv For Life [cf] (C), at 199 E Louisiana St/n Heidelbach Ave, Evansville, IN, on 01/03/2012, 01:43. Reported: 01/03/2012. On January 3rd, 2012 at approximately 0140 hours, Officers were patrolling in the area of Heidelbach / Louisiana. Officers observed a subject driving a brown Neon north to exit the lot. When the subject observed the Officers looking at him, he quickly parked the vehicle and exited, walking very quickly into the convenience store. Officers found this odd behavior, and stayed in the area to observe. The subject came back outside several times, and upon seeing Officers, went back inside the store. The subject then came outside, spoke to the driver of a Jeep Cherokee that had just pulled onto the lot, and went to the back seat of that vehicle. The Jeep Cherokee then left the lot, through the alley behind the store, and went south on Governor. The Cherokee then went west onto Oregon, then back north on Heidelbach, back onto the lot of the convenience store. The vehicle parked near a pump, but nobody exited the vehicle. Officers parked their vehicles on the lot, and approached the vehicle, and spoke with the subject, as well as the driver of the Jeep Cherokee. The driver of the Jeep stated that she did not know the subject, and that he asked her for a ride. She stated that he did not mention any specific place, but did ask her to cut through the alley. She stated that she gave him a ride because the weather was cold. When Officers asked to speak to the subject, he agreed. As Officers were speaking with the subject, he stated that he was a Habitual Traffic Violator for Life, and that he shouldn't be arrested since he was honest. He was arrested and taken to VCCC.
