	On 01/3/12 at 2333hrs, Officers were checking the area of 623 S. Harlan Ave. for a domestic violence incident. We were directed to apartment 9 where the residents there said the problem parties left the area. While speaking to the residents, we noticed a partially burned marijuana cigarette on the coffee table and the ashtray and a plastic bag with the corner torn off, a sign of illegal drug use. We asked the renter, Involved Other, if we could search his apartment for illegal drugs. He gave officers permission.
	He led me to the bedroom and said, you can check the drawers and was extremely cooperative with our request. I observed a purse sitting on a chair in the bedroom. I asked the offender, who was in the living room, if the purse was hers and she said, "yeah." I asked her if there was anything in it and she said, "yeah, there`s my wallet, some money, make up...." After she listed several items, I asked her if there were any illegal drugs inside. She paused and said there weren`t and I asked her if I could search it. She said, "Sure." I found inside a multi-colored glass smoking device with burnt residue. I issued the offender an information and summons for the paraphernalia and informed her of her mandatory court date and she said she understood.
