Reported: 01/30/2012. On 01/30/2012 at 1544hrs, I met with the victim at 6514 Newburgh Rd. Apt. B regarding a stolen vehicle report. The victim said approximately 01/09/2012 her husband, involved other, drove their 1995 white Mercury Sable to St. Mary's hospital to visit her, since she was hospitalized due to illness. She said upon his arrival, he fell ill and has been in the hospital since then. She said her husband said he parked the vehicle near the emergency room, but couldn't elaborate more specifically than that. She said she and a family member searched the parking lot, but couldn't find the car. She said they spoke to St. Mary's security and they said they don't tow vehicles. They then took them around the St. Mary's campus, but could not locate the vehicle. The vehicle did not have any distinguishing marks, stickers or damage on the outside. It had been having ignition switch problems, so the owner made a repair that left the ignition switch dangling from the steering column. The vehicle still required a key to start. The victim said her husband always locks the vehicle and it was paid for, so there was no chance of repossession. The owner checked with several of the tow companies in the area and was unable to locate the vehicle. The victim said all of the keys to the vehicle were accounted for. I informed the victim to contact the Evansville Police Department immediately if they locate the vehicle.		DEYOUNG, P. A.

Officers were dispatched to 600 N Weinbach for a hold up report. Officers arrived and a detective was already on scene. Officers and the detective Melton spoke with the victim. She said this is her first day on the job and she delivers pizzas for Dominos. She said an order came in for 501 S Denby Ave. She delivered the pizza to the address. When she arrived the street was dark and there was no porch light. She knocked on the door and a light skinned black male answered. The male was dressed in a sock hat, t-shirt, and jeans that were all dark in color. The male was around 18-25 yoa and was about 509-511. He walked away from the house and the caller paid for his pizza. As she was walking back to her car the suspect was walking down the street. He turned around and asked if they were hiring. She told him yes they were. He started walking towards her as she was getting into her car. He grabbed her door as she was closing it and pulled it back open. He said "give it up" and she saw what appeared to be a black revolver in his right hand. She got out of the car and pushed him backwards and said "no". He fell back and said "it was just a joke" and ran off around the house. He didn't get anything from her and she drove back to her place of employment to call 911. The detective went to the address on S Denby to talk with the subjects there. The investigation is still on going at this time.		LOWE, J. W.
