	Officers were dispatched to a harassment report at 5300 Stringtown Rd. The victim has had continual problems with the offender violating the protective order she has against him. She feels that he is intentionally doing it to intimidate her and her children. She stated on his most recent charge of invasion, the judge amended the protective order to include that he was not allowed to drive by 5300 Stringtown Rd, her address. Today, she was outside her house and observed a dark blue work truck drive by the house on Stringtown Rd northbound at approximately 5 mph. She noticed that the driver was staring at her and when she looked at him directly, she recognized him to be the offender.
	The offender has a prior trial conviction for invasion against this victim under docket 82D05-1008-CM-04852 on 2/2/11. He is currently out on bond with a no-contact order under docket 82D02-1112-FD-01344 during which he was specifically told not to drive past the residence. RMS reports show that he began driving by the residence on a daily basis on 09/04/10 (10-22388). He also recently had a report filed in which he violated the P/O by making contact with the victim's 13-year-old daughter at 4635 N First Ave.
