LW 1110724 Battery-hff Domestic [am]	Buchta, Carriage Dr, Evansville, IN, between 08:45, 06/02/2011 and 09:01, 06/02/2011. Reported: 06/02/2011.  I was dispatched to Carriage Dr on a domestic violence in progress. When I arrived I spoke with victim, she advised that her ex ( suspect ) had just ran out the back door when I pulled up. Victim stated that suspect does not live there but they have a child together. She said that suspect had stayed the night and sometime in the morning his cell phone had rang. She said that she answered his phone and there was another woman on the phone. Victim stated that she then confronted suspect about the girl who was calling. She stated that he then became upset and kicked her in the stomach twice. Victim stated that she then fell back onto the wall, she said that she then got hit in the mouth. Victim was unsure if suspect hit her with his fist but just knew she had been hit in the mouth. Suspect then pinned down victim. Victim stated that suspect then finally let her up after short time and she ran downstairs and called 911. Victim said suspect then came down the stairs and she told suspect that she had just dialed 911 and he didn't believe her. She said that suspect then grabbed a knife from kitchen drawer. Victim said that suspect then jabbed it at her and then handed her the knife. She said that he then took knife back away from her and put it back up. Suspect then walked around apartment thinking victim had not called police. She said that when suspect looked out window, he saw squad car pulling up and then ran out the back door. Victims front tooth had been chipped, victim had no other visible injuries. Officers were unable to locate suspect. Victim was advised to contact prosecutors office and file for a protective order. LW 1110723 Burglary-res [bf]	Miller, Lisa Ann Evansville, IN, between 21:00, 06/01/2011 and 08:56, 06/02/2011. Reported: 06/02/2011.  Victim states that her and her husband had a fight on 05-30-11 and are now separated. The victim was served with a restraining order yesterday. The victim returned home today to discover her husbands television missing. The west side window had been broken out and the front door was open upon her return. Crime scene was not necessary for processing or photographs since the victim had already cleaned up the scene. Victim states that she felt that her husband had taken the television without letting her know. Victim was unable to provide any serial numbers at this time. End of narrative  Victim apparently didn't want to call her husband to see if he had the TV because of the restraining order against her. Reported: 06/02/2011. The victim went to Chik-N-Stix at 1005 S Kentucky and ordered $15. worth of food. The food was prepared and placed on the counter in front of the victim by the offender, who is the owner of the restaurant. The offender was noticeably upset with the victim and started yelling at her about a fight that had occurred at 1148 Washington on 5-28-11. During the fight, the victim's brother got into a fight with the boyfriend of the offender's daughter and in the process the offender's daughter was injured. The victim tried to explain to the offender that she wasn't present when the fight had occurred and really didn't know anything about it. The offender started hitting the victim in the forehead with her finger as she was yelling at her about the situation. The victim became upset and started crying and asked for her money back. The offender refused until the victim called her mother on the phone. As the victim was exiting the store with the refunded money and her friend, the witness, the offender spit on the victim's back.	KARMIRE, C. M.

LW 1110761 Theft Other &lt; 50 [df]	I was dispatched to the Great American Cookie 800 N Greenriver Rd for a fake five dollar bill. I arrived at the store and spoke with the reporter who advised that at approx. four thirty this afternoon a white female purchased six dollars and eighty nine cents worth of food. The reporter advised the female paid with a five dollar bill and two one dollar bills. The reporter advised that after she took the money and placed it in the drawer she did not think it felt real. The reporter advised she took the money back out of the drawer and grabbed a marker to check the bill. The report said that once she checked the bill and noticed it was fake she looked up and the suspect was gone. The reporter advised she notified her manager of this. The reporter advised the female was approx. thirty years old wearing a gray t-shirt, blue jeans. The reporter advised the female left walking east through the mall with a child and taller male subject. The reporter and manager were left a case number and was advised a report would be made. The five dollar bill was taken and placed into evidence. Red Lobster VICTIM of Theft Other &lt; 50 [df] (C), at 4605 Bellemeade Ave, Evansville, IN, on 06/02/2011, 15:00. Reported: 06/02/2011. Officer was called by the manager on duty at Red Lobster in reference to a female who ordered food, ate, then left without paying. Once on scene, Officer spoke with the on duty manager, a Mr. Andy Thompson. Mr. Thompson stated a white female and black female sat in the bar area of the business and ordered two meals with drinks. He stated the white female advised that she would be the one responsible for paying the bill. When the server handed the female the bill, the black female got up and walked out of the business. The white female told the server that she left her debit card in her car and she would have to go out and get it. The server explained that he felt this was suspicious so he followed the white female to the door. When the white female exited the business, she took off in a sprint towards a car. Once outside, the light brown older model vehicle with Indiana registration left the lot at a high rate of speed. The server told me that the white female was short, heavy set, and had a tattoo on her neck of possible tear drops or a Chinese symbol. Officer ran the Indiana Registration and it returned to a 1999 Red Pontiac, registered to a Autumn Jones. Officer pulled a photo from RMS to show the server. Once the server saw the photo he stated, " That's her Officer, I'm 100 percent certain. RMS did show a tattoo to the neck area of Ms. Jones. I, Officer Reed, went to the last known address for Ms. Jones. The apartment was vacant, but I was able to speak to a neighbor. The neighbor was able to provide me with a phone number of Ms. Jones. I called the phone number and asked to speak to Autumn Jones. The female who answered replied that she was Jones. I asked Ms. Jones if I could meet her to discuss her visit to Red Lobster. Ms. Jones stated that she was busy	REED, L. A.

LW 1110766	and that she was unable to speak with me. Ms. Jones stated that she is currently homeless and stays with friends from night to night. She also told me that she did not mean to leave without paying for the bill. Ms. Jones said that she left her debit card in her car and when she got to her car, she noticed that she must have left it at home. Ms. Jones said she panicked and fled the parking lot not knowing what else to do. Ms. Jones stated that she would return to Red Lobster on 6-3-2011 at 1600 to pay the bill. Ms. Jones said that she was sorry and would fix the problem. Officer then returned to Red Lobster to speak with Mr. Thompson. I explained what Ms. Jones had said, and he stated that he would be at work tomorrow. He stated if she didn't show up, he would let Officers know.	Johnson, Keshea Alexandria Lee (B F, 20) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief To Veh [bm] (C), at 620 Jefferson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:10, 06/02/2011 and 17:14, 06/02/2011. Case #	Description	(A)tttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1110786 Battery-simple Assault [bm]	... stated that she had got into a verbal argument with her boyfriend, Torrey about him texting other females. Emily stated he became angry, threw her to the ground, and started to choke her with both hands. She stated that she had to bite him on the hand to get him to let go. He then picked her up and threw her against the wall. Her brother, Joseph tried to call police and Torrey smacked him on the right arm, knocking the phone out of his hands. He then fled the scene. Emily and Torrey do not live together, have never been married and do not have children together. Emily did have a bruise on her right shoulder from where Torrey threw her against the wall. Emily stated that she wanted to pursue charges and was given a case number. Shane (W M, 24) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault [bm] (C), at 311 S Elm Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:30, 06/02/2011 and 23:48, 06/02/2011. Reported: 06/02/2011.		WINTERS, K. L.
LW 1110788 Battery-law Enf Inj/other [df]	The victim in this incident, Shane is a friend of Kerry, who is currently going through a messy divorce with listed suspect #2. Suspect #2 is involved with suspect #1 and they are living together. Suspect #1 and Kerry used to be best friends and the friendship ended when suspect #2 got pregnant by suspect #1 and moved in with him. Now Kerry and suspect #2 have cross protective orders against each other and he claims that she and suspect #1 are following him around, harassing him everywhere he goes. Kerry was at Shane's residence tonight having dinner with Shane and his girlfriend Jennifer and their daughter. About ten minutes after Kerry left tonight, Shane and Jennifer said that the suspects showed up, claiming that they were trying to visit Shane's neighbor who was apparently not home. They said that there was a loud crash in the room where their daughter was sleeping and when Shane went outside, he found that the window to the room was smashed out - their toddler daughter was sleeping in a bed near the window but was not hurt. Shane was confronted by suspect #1, who started throwing punches at him and grabbed him in a head-lock. During the fight Shane was able to avoid the punches thrown at him but he said he was shoved into the front gate, knocking it off its hinges. Jennifer said she was on the phone calling 911 when suspect #2 came from the back of the house and threatened that the only way suspect #1 was going to let go of Shane was if Jennifer hung up the phone, which she did in fear for Shane's safety. The suspects were gone when I arrived and they were not at their residence when I went there to follow up. They were advised to follow-up with the prosecutor's office to press charges. Harrington, Marty S.
