Reported: 06/05/2011.		CHAPMAN, S. A.
LW 1110988	I, Officer S. Chapman, was dispatched to Hatfield Drive, to the parking lot of Embassy apartments. The caller stated that two black males were beating on a purple car. I arrived on scene and located the offender working on his vehicle with his friend standing nearby. I asked the offender if he had been beating on any cars and he stated that he threw a video camera against his girlfriend's car. The offender walked me over to her car and showed me exactly where he hit it and showed me the damage he caused to the window. He immediately offered the information and was very cooperative. I attempted to make contact with the girlfriend at her apartment. The offender stated that she was home and gave me the same address that was in the system for her. She did not answer the door. [06/05/2011 08:10, SCHAPMAN, 1155] Sachs, Donald Gene (W M, 50) VICTIM of Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 1509 Fountain Ave, Evansville, IN, between 03:00, 06/05/2011 and 07:46, 06/05/2011. Reported: 06/05/2011. On June 5, 2011 around 0749 hundred hours, I, Officer Matthew Knight, was dispatched to Fountain Ave. in reference to a residential burglary report. I arrived and spoke with the property owner, the reporter. The reporter told me the resident, the victim, lives in the building behind Fountain and is currently in the hospital not expected to survive his bout with cancer much longer. The reporter stated that she came over to check on the house on June 5, 2011 around 0730 hundred hours and saw gate leading to the victim's home was open. The reporter then stated she noticed the living room window on the east side of the home had been tampered with. The reporter said the window was broken previously so they put up a wooden board to cover the opening, which was held in place by a ladder. The reporter said the ladder had been moved away from the window. The reporter then said the front door was partially ajar and the deadbolt was no longer locked. The reporter said that she and her husband had been through the house prior to my arrival. They said they locked the deadbolt to the house yesterday after the victim's ex-wife came over trying to take items out of the house. Due to the victim being in the hospital, nobody knew if anything had been disturbed or taken. The reporter believed someone entered the residence through the small opening in the window. There was a TV stand just beneath the window with various electronics and DVD's on it. They appliances and DVD's were covered in dust and revealed no prints of any type. They did not appear disturbed. The only thing I saw that was out of place was a prescription bottle for oxycodone/acetaminophin that was filled on 05/10/2011 with 180 pills.
