W1,	called 911 to say 2 black males in a pickup truck were stealing appliances from the back of Barretts used appliance store. He told dispatch the suspects were leaving in the alley. Officers arrived right away, but the truck was already gone. While I, Fair was getting more info from ... Officers located 2 black males unloading appliances from a pickup truck at S Evans. The truck was a black 1998 GMC Sierra with IN plate 1280226. They said they got the appliances from inside 1 S. Evans. told me his bedroom window faces the alley behind Barretts. He awoke around 0425 to a loud noise. He peeked out the window and saw the theft occurring. He said the truck was full size. He thought it was a Ford and he thought it was red, but it was still dark out and he only took a quick look, so he might have gotten that wrong. He said he did not get a look at one of the males, but the other one looked to be in his 40s or 50s, 5' 10" to 6' and thin build. He could not tell what the man was wearing. His girlfriend looked outside and thought one of them had a beard. said something to the suspects and then left his room to get a phone to call 911. When he came outside the truck was gone, but his girlfriend said it went east in the alley. Both Simmons and his girlfriend said they did not get a good enough look at the suspects to be able to identify them. The owner, arrived at the scene after dispatch was able to make phone contact. He said the appliances on the back dock are non-working appliances he sells for scrap metal earnings. He has agreements with other appliance stores to haul off their junk appliances and stores some of them there also. He could not tell which appliances if any were missing because his employees are the ones that place the appliances on the dock. He tried to make contact with 2 employees he said would know what was missing, but he was unable. The employees should be at work around 8am. Crime scene arrived to process the scene. Detective Fleck arrived and spoke to the men at 1226 S Evans and the victim. Fleck made an agreement with the men to not yet scrap the items they had in the truck. He arranged to follow up with the victim's employees after they come into work. The victim was given a case number and told how to follow up. The men at Evans were released.
