Reported: 06/10/2011. EFD and AMR were dispatched in reference to an adult male who was unresponsive. Once on scene they determined that the subject was deceased, and requested the proper authorities. When I arrived I found 1E1 as well as AMR unit 1180. They stated that they found the male lying on his side on the living room floor. They stated that the subject was cold to the touch, and that rigor had set in. They directed me to the caller, who is the victims girlfriend (RP.) The RP stated that she and the victim have children in common, and have been living together for 13 years but they are not married. She explained that the victim has several medical problems including diabetes, and an unknown problem with his stomach. Over the past several days the victim has been ill and refused to go to the hospital.		WARD, M. R.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	The RP stated that she last spoke to the victim at 2230 hours on 06/09/11. At that time she helped the victim move from the couch onto the floor so he could stretch out. She also got the victim some Gatorade to drink, and then went to bed. At approximately 0345 the RP got up for work and checked on the victim. She stated that she saw a spider in the cup holder of the couch and attempted to move the victim before spraying the spider with insecticide. When she tried to move the victim she was unable to do so and at that time she "knew something was wrong." She called 911 immediately. The only occupants in the residence at this time were the couples three children and the RP. We located a wooden baseball bat near the victims feet. The bat is usually kept near the front door. The RP stated that the door to the residence is left unlocked at times so the children can get in, and that the victim probably moved the bat closer to him for security. Crime scene responded as well as a detective.
