Reported: 11/02/2011. On 11/2/11 at 1514hrs, Officer Brown and I, Officer DeYoung, met with a subject regarding a harassment report at the corner of First Ave. and Mill Rd. After listening to the issue at hand, it was determined that the problem could be resolved if we talked to the other half of the dispute, who was no longer present. We went to his house at 1221 Fountain. He was crossing the street to go to his house and I asked him to stop. He stopped on the sidewalk in front of his house and I told him he wasn't under arrest, but we wanted to talk to him regarding the previous harassment incident. I asked him if he had any weapons on him and he said, "Yeah, I have a knife." and started to reach into his right front pocket. I grabbed his right forearm and stopped the motion of reaching into his pocket, as I was afraid he may remove the knife and attempt to attack me. I removed the knife from his front right pocket. As I removed it, it flipped out of my hand onto the ground in an open position. I retrieved the knife and observed that it was a switchblade. It would flip open at the push of a button, which activated a spring. When I was removing it from his pocket, the button was depressed and it opened, which caused it to flip out of my hand. I handcuffed and told him the knife was illegal. He said a friend gave him the knife and had it and another one engraved for him and his girlfriend.		DEYOUNG, P. A.

Reported: 11/02/2011.  Dispatched for a theft report. The victim works at the BP station at 1650 S. Kentucky. While she was at the register a white male wearing a red shirt and jeans took her wallet from behind the counter. The wallet was laying next to the register on the counter. He was in the store with his sister who is a white female with reddish hair. The victim said the white female comes in the store all the time with her baby in the stroller and she was pushing the stroller tonight. She said the female made mention that the male was her brother while they were talking. The female used her EBT card to purchase some items. After about 20 minutes the victim noticed her wallet was missing. They pulled the video and saw on the video the white male taking it. They all then left and went east in front of the building and then went north in the alley beside the store. There were two other males waiting outside for the suspect. One was white and wearing a blue shirt and one was a light skinned black male wearing a black t shirt.  I checked the alley and found several pieces of paper along with the victims birth certificate. I drove around in the area but was unable to locate the subjects. The victim said she thinks they live near by because the female walks to the store all the time. I obtained a copy of the video and turned it into crime scene.		WINTERS, R. M.

Upon arriving, we spoke with the reporter who lived next door and had called 911. The reporter was the mother of the tenant at 605 Madison Ave, and the tenant had already left for work. The reporter then showed us the front window of the house that had been broken. The large window to the left of the front door was broken at the bottom. A small rock was still stuck in between the window and the window screen. The reporter also showed officers where a plant that was sitting on the porch had been turned over, but was not damaged. The reporter believes the suspect was her daughter's ex-boyfriend who has been harassing and causing them both problems for some time now. The crime occurred sometime between 1750 hours and 2145 hours when the reporter was not home. The reporter was adamant that the damage was not there when she had left. There were no witnesses to the incident, but the reporter did give officers information on where to possibly locate the suspect.
