	Aztar. The cab driver told detectives that he arrived to pick up [redacted] as a fair, at Deaconess. He stated that [redacted] quickly got into the cab and told him to immediately drive. The cab driver stated that he heard a male yelling for him to stop but he did not. Once they arrived at Casino Aztar, the cab driver stated that [redacted] gave him a $20 bill for the $7 ride and told him not to tell the police that he brought him there. I went to Deaconess and watched the video on the security cameras. Security officers pulled up both [redacted] and [redacted] together in the main waiting room in the main lobby of the hospital. Once I identified the two as being the two we were interested in, security officers advised that they had seen the two interacting throughout the night. As they replayed the video, [redacted], walked over to a counter and leaned up against it while [redacted] was nearby. [redacted] sees a cab drive up and quickly walks out the door. [redacted] is seen running after [redacted] out the door. I called Detective Whitler and advised him of the video footage. He then relayed this to [redacted]. I went to the Police Headquarters where [redacted] was taken. I was advised that [redacted] had changed his original story. I spoke to [redacted] and recapped his original story. He told me that he was confused and that is why his first story did not match the story he was giving now. I asked him why he was in the lobby with [redacted] and he stated that he smoked a cigarette with him outside and they then walked around the outside of the hospital to the front lobby. He stated that inside the lobby, he pulled out his wallet to loan $10. He stated that when he did this, [redacted] grabbed all his money and told him he would kill him. [redacted] stated that he then went away from [redacted] so he could call 911 and look for a security officer. He stated that I should be able to see him calling 911 on his cell phone in the camera. I left the interview room for a bit and returned. I asked [redacted] if I could see his phone where he attempted to call 911 he stated that it was dead and that is why he couldn't call 911 earlier. He handed me the phone and I could not get it to come on. I told him there was a pay phone in the lobby he could use to call 911 and he stated he didn't think of that after just being robbed. Detective Sides stated that [redacted] had told him that he was originally at the hospital to see his friend [redacted] who had been in a four-wheeler accident and had been life flighted in. Detective Whitler asked [redacted] why he was at the hospital and he stated that he was there to see a friend or relative of his buddy. We called the hospital and they advised that nobody had come in to the E.R. resembling the information [redacted] had given us. Detective Whitler asked [redacted] who he was riding in the SUV with and he stated "Joker." Detective Whitler asked if "Joker" was the subject's real name and he stated that it was. Detective Whitler asked what "Joker's" last name was and [redacted] stated he did not know. [redacted] stated that the money he had belonged to him. Detective Whitler interviewed [redacted] and found his story to be completely inconsistent. At one point [redacted] was made aware that he may not get the money back due the inconsistencies in his story and officers not being able to establish the truth in either of the two's stories. [redacted] became very upset upon learning this. When [redacted] was made aware the same thing, Detective Whitler stated that [redacted] stated "I don't care. It's not my money." He then recanted that and stated it was his. [redacted] agreed to let [redacted] have the money if he would give him enough out of it to buy a bus ticket. [redacted] agreed to by [redacted] a bus
