	The Rp works for Ireland Home Based Services. She said the IO is an employee. Rp said that sometime ago a "collection agency" started calling the business looking for IO. IO told Rp that her personal information had been accessed and that she was receiving calls from this same company. The Rp said they receive numerous calls every day for IO. On todays date she said they have received between 20-30 calls. The company is calling on several different phones lines at the business. Rp said they call, hang up and then call right back. Several different employees of Ireland have answered the phone when these people call. Rp said that lately the man has been real hateful, demanding and threatening. He told them "let me talk to Lavonne right now!!" and "write down my number right now!!" He also warned them that the calls will continue until they make contact with IO. IO has reported this activity to the Attorney Generals office and other agencies trying to get it stopped. IO does not owe them any money. This is a scam and she is not paying them.
