LW 1122486 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report	Rash, (W F, 40) VICTIM of Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 2800 S Alvord Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 10:45, 10/29/2011 and 11:05, 10/29/2011. Reported: 10/29/2011. I was dispatched to 2800 S Alvord on a family dispute. On scene I spoke to the both parties. I spoke to Mr. Rash first. He stated that they have been having some relationship problems lately. He said that today they got into a argument in the bedroom. He said that it got heated. Mr Rash said that she reached down and grabbed him by the crouch. He said that he reacted and slapped her. Mr. Rash said that they then started pushing and shoving on each other inside the room. She told him that she was calling the police and he said that they should and called us. I spoke to the Mrs Rash. She said that yesterday they had a problem with one of the daughters cussing at her. She said that the argument started today because she doesn't believe that Mr Rash is backing her up on punishment of the daughter. She said that it has been hard for her since a car accident. She said that she has some depression and ptsd issues and told him that she wanted a divorce to make him upset. She said that they were pushing and shoving each other in the room. Neither Mrs. Rash or Mr. Rash had any visible injuries. He decided that it would be best for him to leave for awhile until thing could cool off and they could talk.	HOLDER, K. W.

LW 1122501	Seifrig, Phyllis (W F, 57) VICTIM of Theft Other 50-200 [df] (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:55, 10/29/2011 and 15:59, 10/29/2011. Reported: 10/29/2011.		CLIFTON, D. L.
Theft Other 50-200 [df]	Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Rd for a theft report. I spoke with the victim Phyllis Seifrig who advised she entered the store around 3:45 pm this afternoon. Ms. Seifrig said she entered Wal-Mart on the grocery store side. Ms Seifrig stated she set her brown Coach purse in the top part of her cart and began shopping for groceries. Ms Seifrig stated she had not been in the store very long and had made it back between aisle 12 to 15. Ms. Seifrig said she spoke to several people within the aisle looking for certain items. Ms. Seifrig was unsure which aisle she was in exactly when her purse was stolen out of her grocery cart. Ms. Seifrig stated she notified an employee of the theft and they had reviewed their tapes while waiting for the police to arrive. Ms. Seifrig did not have any ideas on a suspect or realize anyone had been around her shopping cart. Ms. Seifrig stated that management had told her there was no video in the aisles she was in. Ms. Seifrig stated that her Evansville Teacher Credit Union debit card was in her purse along with a Visa credit card, a Verizon Wireless Iphone along with her driver's license and social security card. I spoke with Wal-Mart management and they confirmed they would not have this theft on video. I gave the victim a case number and advised her to notify the proper places for the items that were in her purse. At approx. 1651 hrs the victim called back and advised that her daughter was able to possibly track the victim's cell phone by a gps system on it. The victim advised the system shows her cell phone is at Pfafflin Lake Blvd Newburgh, Indiana. I had dispatch contact Warrick County Sheriffs Dept. and advise them of this theft and see if they could have a deputy check on this information. I spoke		CLIFTON, D. L.

LW 1122500	with Warrick County Deputy Sgt Bennett and he advised he checked this residence and the subjects there were willing to allow him to look in their home. Sgt Bennett advised he felt this was not going to be a good location for the phone after speaking with the subjects that live there. While speaking with Sgt Bennett the victim's daughter called my cell phone again and advised they contacted the victim's credit card company and they advised the credit card had already been used at Ci Cis Pizza Evansville. Sgt Bennett was advised of this information and he advised there was no sign of any Ci Cis Pizza in the home if it was taken to go. Officers went to Ci Cis Pizza east on N Green River Rd and spoke with the management who allowed officers to check the credit card receipts. Officers located a receipt with Ms. Seifrig name at the bottom of the receipt. The cashier at the time assisted with this and advised that the receipt total for 14.99 would be for two people who ate buffet and both had drinks. The manager on duty made contact with the owner of Ci Cis Pizza and I advised him of the receipt that was located and he advised he will possibly be able to find the video for this transaction. The receipt showed it was rang up at 14:53 hours and officers were able to determine that the credit card machine was off by a hour by comparing a transaction that was ran while officers standing there. The credit card would have actually been used at approx. 15:53 hours. I spoke with the owner of Ci Cis Pizza and he is going to check his video and contact the department if he is able to catch the transaction being made. The victim can be reached by calling the other contact information listed in rms under the victim's name. The victim did have black four door Honda Civic rental vehicle through Enterprise parked at Wal-Mart. The victim stated the keys to this car was in her purse and at this time the vehicle was still parked at Wal-Mart. Buehlers Buy Low Morgan VICTIM of Narc-legend - False Script [df] (C), at 2220 E Morgan Ave, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 10/29/2011 and 16:11, 10/29/2011. Reported: 10/29/2011. I, Officer D. Smith was dispatched to Buy Lows Pharmacy for a Bunco report. Upon my arrival I spoke with the pharmacy manager, Hood. Hood stated that he had been contacted earlier in the day by Dr. Sash stating that someone had called his office earlier this morning to get a script of Clonidine called in. Sash advised Hood that the caller gave the information of. Sash later pondered the call and did some investigating because he did not remember having a patient with that information. Sash was calling because the script should not be filled. Sash later determined he had no patient with that information. The suspect entered the business attempting to pick up the falsified prescription and the reporter asked for his ID. The suspect stated he didn't have it and left. He later returned and the reporter asked for his ID again. The suspect stated that he wasn't actually left again. The third time the suspect came back he gave his actual ID to the reporter, confirming his identity. The reporter advised the suspect to leave because the script was fake and he became angry and left. The reporter contacted the suspect and attempted to get him to return to the scene for the medication but he never showed up. Reported: 10/29/2011. Victim stated that she is a friend of the suspect from many years ago and they have recently began speaking again. She stated that she has been assisting him financially and has helped him get a job recently. The victim stated that the suspect invited her over to his apartment at 2173 E. Franklin for dinner. After dinner the victim stated she told the suspect she was going to go home. The victim stated that the suspect became upset because she did not want to go out to Casino Aztar with him. She stated that she finally agreed to go with him, but then he became side tracked and started organizing his apartment. The victim said she decided to go home and not go to Aztar as she was not feeling well and it was getting late. She stated at this point she put on her coat and attempted to leave. The victim stated the suspect then shoved her onto the couch, placed both of his hands around her neck, and began to squeeze her throat. The victim stated she could not breath and thought that she was going to die. She stated that the suspect let her go, but told her she was going to "respect him." She stated she tried to leave several more times, but each time she tried to leave the suspect became irate again. The victim stated she believed he would harm her again if she attempted to leave. Between each episode, the victim stated the suspect would ask for forgiveness, and would begin talking as if nothing had happened. The victim stated the suspect finally allowed her to leave after she agreed to pay his rent that was upcoming on Nov. 1st. As the victim was walking out the suspect produced the victims car key and stated "I guess you will need this." The victim stated she did not give the suspect the car key and does not know how he got it from her. The victim also stated that she still had pain in her neck and on her arms from where he threw her on the couch. She had no visible injury at the time of the report. The victim stated she believes that the suspect will come after her if she presses charges, but she stated she knows she needs to pursue the matter. She stated that she is in fear of her life and the subject has continued to leave messages for her ever since the assault occurred.	WATSON, B. K.

Reported: 10/30/2011. Officer McKinney was advised of a possible intoxicated driver west on Green River from Covert Av. Officer McKinney observed the vehicle(1996 red Mercury Villager mini-van IN OV6689) and began to follow it toward Professional Blvd. Officer McKinney stated she observed the suspect vehicle driving between the left and right lane taking up both lanes so other cars could not pass. Officer McKinney stated she then stopped the vehicle at Covert Ave and Jeanette Ave. Officer McKinney stated upon speaking to the driver, later identified as the suspect Ebony Shemwell, she could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the driver's breath. Officer McKinney called for a DUI grant car and I, Officer Hastings, responded to the scene. When on scene, Officer McKinney asked the suspect from the vehicle. I then advised the suspect that I would be conducting SFSTs. I tested the suspect on the gaze nystagmus and the suspect showed the lack of smooth pursuit, distinct sustain nystagmus at maximum deviation and onset of nystagmus prior to forty-five degrees. I then instructed the suspect on the walk and turn. When doing so the suspect kept beginning the test before being instructed to do so. The suspect had to be stopped twice so that I could continue advising her on the test. Once I had instructed her, I asked the suspect if she understood and she stated she did. Before I could tell the suspect to begin she started the test on her own. The suspect failed to walk heel to toe on any of her steps, failed to turn as instructed, stopped after the turn and then walked the nine steps back failing to touch heel to toe. I then attempted to instruct the suspect on the one leg stand and he became uncooperative. Once I was done advising her of the test, I advised her she could begin. The suspect refused to take the test. I asked the suspect if she was going to take the test and she started complaining about being cold. I then attempted to test the suspect on the PBT and she refused to give a breath sample. I then placed the suspect in handcuffs and when doing so she became passive resistant. Officer McKinney assist in securing the suspect and placing her in my patrol car. The suspect during this moment was screaming for help and cussing me. I transported the suspect to the VCCC and while enroute the suspect continued to yell for help and cuss me. Upon arrival at the jail, I walked the suspect into the intoxilyzer room in order to test her on the BAC DataMaster. I read the suspect the Indiana Implied Consent Warning and the suspect refused to take the test. The suspect was advised of her charges and booked into the jail.		HASTINGS, M. J.
