LW 1118029 Battery-hff Domestic [am]	Whitticker, Miah Colette (B F, 22) VICTIM of Battery-hff Domestic [am] (C), at 718 Bayard Park Dr, Evansville, IN, between 02:25, 09/02/2011 and 02:30, 09/02/2011. Reported: 09/02/2011. Officers were dispatched to a domestic violence in progress at 718 Bayard Park Dr. The victim and witness both dialed dispatch from cell phones and advised that they were fleeing the scene to 628 Bayard Park Dr. The victim lives at 628 Bayard Park Dr. Officers arrived on scene and were flagged down by the victim in front of her home. The victim was crying, breathing very hard and had a few very small drops of blood coming from scratches on her right forearm. I, Officer W. Arbaugh, also noticed an odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the victim's mouth. Officers observed that her hair was unruly like she had been in a struggle. The victim also had a skin abrasion to her left knee. The victim and witness were separated and questioned. Both separately said that the offender and victim have a 4 month old child together. The victim said they have a very turbulent and abusive relationship. The victim said that she does not like to get the police involved when she gets hurt by the offender. The victim said she is finished with the abuse and would like to peruse charges. Officers questioned the victim and she said that the offender had taken too many Xanax pills today and was acting crazy. The victim admitted that she had consumed two beers and had spent most of the day arguing with the offender. Both the victim and witness said that they were visiting a large group of approximately 10 black males and 2 black females on the porch of 725 Bayard Park Dr. at approximately 0200 hours. This address is across the street from the offenders home. The offender does not get along with many of the people across the street. Both the victim and witness advised that the offender was bragging about having a gun from across the street while verbally taunting individuals with words and poses. The victim stated that the offender came toward her and was angry. The victim said he violently pushed her to the ground with both of his hands. The battery occurred in the road. The victim said he then proceeded to hit her in the head 10 times with a closed fist. The victim said that she was scratching him trying to flee and yelling. The witness said the same chain of events except, she stated the victim was hit 3 times instead of 10 times with a closed fist. The victim had a very, slight redness to her skin under the left eye. There was no other noticeable injury to her face or head. The victim refused an ambulance and stated that she would be fine. Officers T. Bond, Officer P. DeYoung and I went to 718 Bayard Park Dr. The offender was handcuffed on the front porch, detained and read Miranda Rights by Officer DeYoung. The offender said he understood his rights and that he would like to speak with officers. The offender had a few small scratches to his arms and neck. The offender was calm and had a slight odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his mouth. The offender said that the victim was starting a verbal argument with him and another female in the area. The offender said the victim began fighting another female and that he was trying to break the fight up. The offender admitted to pushing the victim and said that he did grab a hold of her while trying to break up a fight that she was in with another female. The offender		ARBAUGH, W. R.

LW 1118035 Theft Other 50-200 [df]	said he did not strike the offender in the face with a fist. The offender also advised that he did not have a gun. The offender did not have any noticeable injuries to his hands and his pupils appeared normal. Officers released the offender. I went back and asked the victim if she had been in an argument with a female and she stated that the offender was lying. While speaking to the victim the offender texted the victim and wrote, "I got something for you bitch." The victim and witness said people in the area did not help her because they are afraid of the offender. The victim was safe and secure in her home. She was given a case number and advised on how to follow up with the prosecutors office to file charges. Society VICTIM of Theft Other 50-200 [df] (A), at 704 N Bell Ave, Evansville, IN, between 07:30, 09/02/2011 and 07:32, 09/02/2011. Reported: 09/02/2011. Reporter advises that he confronted described Suspect (OF) at the rear of the duplex at 704-706 N BELL AVE, while Suspect was attempting to remove an exterior, central air conditioning unit. Suspect claimed that he was working for the owner and was told to remove the a/c unit for eventual replacement. The duplex is abandoned and, according to Reporter, has been taken over by the mortgage company. When Suspect was pressured to name the owner of the duplex who had told him to remove the a/c unit, he was unable to give a correct response. Reporter, who lives next door at 708 N BELL, advised Suspect that he was calling 911. Suspect immediately got into his described vehicle and left the scene, East-bound on DELAWARE ST. I, Cpl E Keller, was dispatched to the scene. While there, it was discovered that the back door to the 704 half of the address was open. I checked the interior and it did not appear to have been lived in for many weeks. An upstairs, exterior door was also found to be open and this led to an attic area that was filled with dirty clothes & trash. There was nothing posted anywhere on the building that would indicate which mortgage company is the owner of the duplex. The weeds in the yard were very high and there was trash in and around the duplex. Before I left the scene, a representative of the City's Neighborhood Code-enforcement Team came onto the scene. He photographed the exterior and interior of the duplex and advised that the address had already been reported for the high weeds and its unsafe condition.		KELLER, E. K.
