Reported: 09/28/2011. Reporter is the manager of Joann Superstore. He saw suspect #1 inside the store shopping. Later a customer, who just paid at the register, was putting their car away. They noticed the suspect exit the building just past them with a cart full of items. The suspect did not pay for the items. They notified the manager. Before the manager went outside to look for suspect #1. suspect #2 had pulled a $200 item off the shelf and was asking for a receipt-less refund to distract the manger. The manager went outside and saw the suspect in a truck drive off. He was able to get a license plate off the truck. Suspect #2 came outside and was arguing with the manager in an attempt to distract him again. Suspect #2 then ran towards McDonalds just south of Joann Superstore. The manager later saw the truck driver by suspect #1 pick up suspect #2. Manager said he and several other employees can identify both suspects. Manager not sure exactly what items were taken, only that a cart full of items was described. He is doing an inventory to try and get a list of items. I gave him the case number and phone number to records.	HESSLER, B. D.
