| LW 1118587 Theft Other 50-200 [df] | Walmart Taylor Av VICTIM of Theft Other 50-200 [df] (C), at 3430 Taylor Ave, Evansville, IN, between 06:51, 09/09/2011 and 07:14, 09/09/2011. Reported: 09/09/2011. I was dispatched to 3430 Taylor to Walmart on a theft report. On scene I spoke to the reporter. She stated that the suspect had come into the store. They began shopping, selecting the items from the display. The suspect then went to the service desk checkout. The reporter said that the female pushed the cart up to the checkout. The groceries were totaled up. When it was time to pay for the selected items, the male suspect stepped in front of the female and was going to pay for the items. The male used a check. When the check was ran through the machine it was declined. During that time, the female had pushed all the groceries out of the store. When the check was declined, they went outside to find the female, but she was gone. The male tried to then pay for the groceries with a gift card that was also declined. The reporter said that she was calling her manager to see what they could do. The male suspect gave the reporter a name, phone number, and a driver's license number. The male walked out of the store while she was on the phone. None of the groceries were paid for and both suspect had left the store. The reporter is going to have the camera footage looked at and burn the footage onto a DVD. They will call in when they have it completed. The reporter was given the case number and records number. I ran the driver's license number. It came back not on file. The name he gave the reporter doesn't match anyone in RMS. | (C) | HOLDER, K. W. |

| | | The victim told me that she owed restitution for a forged check. She said she went to the store with her son wanting to make a payment. She paid $500 toward her $3000 debt. The victim said she was told by the offender that she was not leaving because he said he had called police. He told he the police were on the way to arrest her on a Forgery Warrant that she had. The victim told me she was ordered by the offender to sit on a bench with her son. She said he took her wallet and keys from her. She watched as he rifled through her wallet demanding more money. She told me he found a 5/3 Debit card. She said he was yelling at her as others watched. The victim said he ordered her to give him a pen number for the card. He threatened to slam her to the ground, and he kept saying her son would be taken away. She said she gave him the number. He left her for a few minutes while he used the ATM. She found out later that he made 4 withdrawals for a total of $1800. She said he was still not satisfied and that he wanted all of the money she owed. He told her repeatedly not to move. She said she and her son were terrified. He then made a phone call to her mom in Clay, Kentucky. He threatened her mom over the phone. He told her mother that he needed to have the rest of the money sent or her daughter was going to jail. The victim said her mother and grandfather went to a Western Union, and payed $111 to send $1180, the balance. She said it was two hours before officers arrived to arrest her on the warrant. She sat on that bench helpless the entire time. She said she is fragile diabetic, and she was not allowed to eat. She told me she begged the offender to let her make a call to have | |
