Other co-workers of AH thought this was suspicious (because of some of the things she was saying) and called Kings and spoke with a manager, Mark Carmack. Carmack then spoke with DS and asked her if she had shipped the listed TV to AH at her work. DS admitted to Carmack that she had indeed shipped the TV to AH at her work thru UPS and the TV had not been payed for. DS told Carmack that she had been pressured into doing it but did not say by who. UPS records were checked and it was found that the TV was delivered on 080211. On 080311 Barnhart (employee of Kings) went to the Klingston Mortgage building with DS. Barnhart spoke with AH and told her that he was there to pick up the TV. AH said the TV was just around the corner in a conference room. Barnhart and DS went to this room and got the TV. Barnhart then asked AH for her info and she gave it to him. DS did not say anything about how she got the TV. Barnhart and DS then went back to Kings and Barnhart went upstairs to tell Carmack that he got the TV back. While he was doing this DS had went out to her car and left the premises. The UPS shipping label book was then checked and found that 2 pages were missing. Kings is going to check on the pages and also past shipment to see if DS has done this before. The handwriting on the shipping label on the TV that went to AH belongs to DS. While taking this report DS was called by Kings about the missing UPS label pages. DS admitted to taking the pages. DS also stated she had shipped 2 TVs to JT in Tennessee. DS also stated she had shipped 1 TV to MC of Evansville. Kings then contacted UPS and got a copy of the shipping labels. These 3 TVs were shipped on 072811. I turned down Morton and he was walking and I saw that he was smoking what looked to be a joint. I stopped the male and he threw the object down. I asked him to stop and walk to me in which he complied but he placed his hand in his pocket and was digging around. I told him to take it out in which he did not. I grabbed his arms and put them behind his back for my safety. I went to check him for weapons and in his left shorts pocket I found a small clear plastic bag with a green leafy substance that looked and smelled like marijuana. It is old and the condition is currently in the beginning phases of remodel. The reporter was last at the property on Sunday 07/31/2011. He returned on today's date and at about 2245 hours he found 2 screens on the floor bent and broken. The reporter then noticed that the electric guitar that he keeps on the alter was missing. The reporter had shut and touched the windows before I arrived and there were no visible prints. There was no other damage other than the window screens but the reporter said he believes someone may have spent the night inside the church because he noticed a blanket and some clothes on a sofa. The reporter said the clothes which were children's clothes came from the back in a messy storage area. The building was cleared and there was a lot of personnel debris everywhere. The reporter said that the debris was there before the burglary. Both the front and back door have double key only locks on the inside and outside and were not unlocked.
