LW 1513457 Narc-poss Paraphernalia [am]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Paraphernalia [am] (C), at 2199 N Heidelberg Ave/wedeking Ave, Evansville, IN, between 15:30, 06/23/2015 and 15:38, 06/23/2015. Reported: 06/23/2015. Officers were traveling west bound on Wedeking approaching Heidelberg behind a red Dodge Durango. The described vehicle suddenly parked on the south side of the street against traffic. As we drove by Ofc. Brewer smelled the strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. Officer initiated a traffic stop at Heidelberg/Wedeking. Ofc. Brewer made contact with the driver, Pinkston, as I made contact with the passenger, Richardville. Upon contact with the subjects officers continued to smell the strong odor of burnt marijuana coming from the vehicle. Brewer asked Pinkston about the smell coming from the car. She informed him that her brother may have left something inside the car and handed him a plastic bag. The bag contained a silver grinder with marijuana residue, three marijuana cigarettes, and a small plastic baggie with marijuana inside. Officers had both parties exit the vehicle. I read both parties their Miranda warnings and both parties stated they understood and wanted to continue to speak to officers. Pinkston informed us that she was smoking a marijuana cigarette inside the vehicle prior to the traffic stop. Pinkston was issued a citation and released.	HOLLINS, B. E.
LW 1513464 Criminal Mischief [bm]	Lacefield, Heather Suzanne (W F, 34) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 5022 N Fares Ave, Evansville, IN, between 15:00, 06/19/2015 and 14:22, 06/23/2015. Reported: 06/23/2015. I spoke with the victim on scene. She stated that she was last at the residence on 6-19-2015 at about 3pm. She stated that there was no damage to the house at that time. She returned today to find that the service door window to the garage was broken out. No entry was made. She believes her ex-boyfriend to be the suspect. The two were originally living at the address together, but due to a protective order and an eviction the suspect no longer lives here. The victim said that a grill and a go-cart were also missing. The go-cart was not missing it was still sitting in the driveway. The grill appeared to be gone and she believes that suspect took it. I advised her it was a civil issue because it was believed to be taken before he was evicted and while he still had rights to the home. She could not recall when the grill was last at the residence. Officer Bourland was at the residence after the victim on 6-19-2015 with the suspect. The suspect was getting property at that time. The victim was not on scene. Once the victim discovered that the suspect was on scene getting property she asked officers to not let any other property leave over the telephone. The standby was stopped at that time and the suspect left the home. Victim was given a case number.	SAMMET, N. P.
