LW 1710810 Narc-poss Paraphernalia	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Paraphernalia (C), at 300 Blk E Eichel Ave, Evansville, IN, on 05/18/2017, 18:39. Reported: 05/18/2017. Detective Hensley observed a red Dodge Neon drive down the alley in the 300 Blk of East Eichel Avenue and park in the middle of the alley. I drove up and approached the driver and sole occupant. She was acting very nervous as I spoke with her. I asked her for her drivers license and I observed a butane torch in her purse as she was looking around for her license. I know from my training and experience that a butane torch is commonly used to heat up a spoon or a glass pipe when drug users are attempting to ingest illegal narcotics. I asked the OF to exit her vehicle, when she did so, a glass pipe with burnt residue fell onto the ground. The OF admitted to being a methamphetamine user and stated that she was getting ready to smoke methamphetamine out of the pipe that fell on the ground. A second pipe was located in her purse after a search incident to arrest. The OF was cited for possession of paraphernalia and her expired drivers license.		HASSLER, N. L.
