	The victim (Fetcher) and the suspect have been in a relationship for 5 years and living at 103 E Florida for 4 years. About 1 to 2 weeks ago the suspect grabbed some property and left. The suspect claims that she was going to come back and get more property which was today. Fetcher stated that she did not want anymore property and left. Suspect still had a key. Today they both agreed that the suspect come to the address just prior to 4pm. They argued in the yard and Fetcher left the address. The suspect is then on camera going in the front door with a key. She is seen leaving with some property that Fetcher identified as being the suspect's daughter's property. Suspect then left the house key sit on the coffee table. Fetcher showed me in the home where someone cut a fan cord and cut an internet cable. There was also a large mess of papers in the bedroom. The suspect admitted to messing the house up including cutting the cords. Fetcher stated that he returned to his home around 430pm and saw the suspect walking out the front door with her property. Fetcher did not call at that time but waited until after 7pm to call 911. She stated that she was upset that they had been together for five years and Fetcher was with another woman. Fetcher was given a case number. Mayhew took photographs of the mess inside the home and the cut cords.
	The suspect claimed that Fetcher grabbed her right arm on the front porch when she first arrived at the home. She showed me very minor bruising to her bicep which appeared to be old.
