No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to 1520 Red Wing Dr for a general complaint. The reporting party, Matthew Kase, was upset because his neighbor put a small iron fence up along his driveway. Kase had a property survey done and found that the fence was on his property. Kase never attempted to talk to his neighbors or inform them that the fence was on his property. He stated that he wanted a vandalism report but I informed him that this was not a criminal issue. He began to explain to me that this may have caused damage to his driveway. I then went and spoke to Laura George. George is the next door neighbor. I explained the situation to her and she agreed to move the fence. She stated that she had no idea where the property line was and Kase had never said anything to her about the fence. She said the fence has been up for months. I then went back to inform Kase. By this time, Kase had already removed most of the fence and placed it in his garage. Kase stated that the neighbors should have known where the line was. Sgt. Taylor was called to the scene and talked to Kase. Kase eventually agreed to give the fence back and wanted a incident report for documentation purposes.		KINGSTON, A. B.
