LW 1724729 Fc-counterfeiting	Beyond. He stated she was wearing a red shirt and a brown jacket with light colored jeans carrying a brown bag. He advised she stole Nike merchandise. A. Lang kept eyes on her and saw her yelling at the male she was with inside the store. A. Lang believed the male stole property as well. The female began yelling at the male suspect outside of Toys-R-Us. Officer H. Adams arrived in the area first and observed a male outside of Marshalls that matched the description provided. Officer H. Adams began speaking with the male. A. Lang was on the line with dispatch and advised that Officer H. Adams had the male subject he saw with the female. The male advised he was not at JCPenny`s with a female and allowed Officer H. Adams to check his bag. Inside he found a bag with 6 pair of black socks. It was in a plastic bag, and he stated they were from Dollar Tree. They were not high quality socks. He was identified and released, as he did not have any merchandise on his person. A. Lang advised he observed the female select at least 7 Nike hoodies [$75 each] and went into the dressing room. She was in there shortly and came out. He advised the size of the bag she was carrying changed. One of the other loss prevention officers went into that dressing room and located at least 7 empty hangers and some tags on the floor. A. Lang advised that he believed the male also stole items. He advised he came into the store with a bag that appeared empty or close to. The male then exhibited behavior consistent with someone who is stealing. The male then went out of view and the bag he had appeared to now be full. He then exited the business through one door, walked out and came back in another. He then exited the doors again and walked toward Marshalls. Officer J. Helm attempted to locate the female in and around Toys-R-Us but was unsuccessful. A. Lang was provided with a case number and he advised he was aware how to turn in video evidence.		HELM, J. E.

Reported: 11/07/2017. Police were dispatched to 860 S. Green River (Planet Fitness) in reference to a subject passing counterfeit money. The suspect left prior to my arrival. On scene, I spoke with the manager who told me at approximately 0300 hundred hours this morning, the suspect came into the business and asked about a membership. He then purchased a drink before leaving. He paid for the drink using a fake 20 dollar bill, and also had them make change for a fake 50 dollar bill. The caller said it wasn`t until he took a deposit to the bank (5th/3rd), that they informed him about the fake bills. He said they kept them. At 1530 hundred hours today, the same suspect came back to the business, and pulled the same scheme on a different worker. He bought a drink using a fake 50 dollar bill, and got the change back for it. The caller turned this fake bill over to me. I placed it into evidence at EPD HQ along with the surveillance video discs. Auntie Annes VICTIM of Theft All Other (C), at 800 N Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:00, 11/04/2017 and 17:00, 11/04/2017.
