LW 1804310 Criminal Recklessness [am]	Hanmore, Amber Rose (W F, 34) VICTIM of Criminal Recklessness [am] (C), at 5000 University Dr, Evansville, IN, between 09:00, 02/28/2018 and 09:07, 02/28/2018. Reported: 02/28/2018.  Hanmore, reports that on, 022818 at 0630hrs, she was at friends apartment, somewhere in the area of Haynies Corner, when the suspect came over to visit IO Vukovich. Things seemed cordial between the suspect and Vukovich, so Hanmore and friend (Eric ?), left them alone to get breakfast. While enroute to the west side Denny's, Hanmore got a flat tire and pulled into the Auto Zone parking lot, 5000 University Dr. She then phoned Vukovich to let her know what had happened. Vukovich was very upset and informed Hanmore that as soon as they had left, the suspect went crazy and cut himself and threatened to kill her and himself. The police were not called.  Hanmore then went to Lowes to get some items. When she returned to Auto Zone, she observed the suspect attempting to change the flat tire. Hanmore then confronted the suspect, yelling at him, asking where Vukovich was and if she was ok, she also told him to get away from her car. The suspect then threatened her,		PHELPS, J. W.

LW 1804308 Burglary - Attempted	stating to her that he would kill her, stab her dog and kill Vukovich. He then got into his truck. Hanmore walked in front of the truck and continued to yell at the suspect, when he tried to run her over, striking the car. He then backed up and she attempted to mace him, when he again pulled forward and struck the car a second time. Hanmore felt that the suspect was attempting to hit her. He then backed up again and pulled out of the lot heading east bound on University Dr. Vukovich was also in the lot. She drove there with the suspect to check on Hanmore. When Hanmore was not there, she called Schlimmer for a ride. She was sitting in his vehicle, when the suspect and Hanmore got into it. Schlimmer was out of his vehicle and witnessed the incident. He was close enough to get maced by Hanmore, before getting back in his vehicle and leaving the area. Schlimmer later returned back to the Auto Zone. He confirmed that the suspect intentionally tried to injure Hanmore. He added that he drove Vukovich to the area of the Ozenam Shelter, but did not believe she went in. He thought she had a friend that lived nearby. He stated that Vukovich was shook up, but didn't seemed harmed. He nor Hanmore could reach Vukovich to see if she intended to file charges on the suspect. She is also the owner of the vehicle that the suspect damaged. Wilson, Martha K. (W F, 77) VICTIM of Burglary - Attempted (A), at 1709 S Kenmore Dr, Evansville, IN, between 21:00, 02/27/2018 and 09:00, 02/28/2018. Reported: 02/28/2018. I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a break-in report. The victim, Wilson, stated she stayed at her daughters house last night due to her daughter being out of town. Wilson stated when she came home this morning she found several things disturbed. Wilson has a small storage unit that contains her gardening and yard tools. Wilson stated the tools were all pulled out and were out of place, but none of them were missing. Wilson stated a key she keeps hidden is missing. Wilson stated a rug was used to prop open her storm door, which she does not do. Wilson stated that when she went into her house, her deadbolt was locked and she did not lock the deadbolt, just the knob was locked. Wilson stated she put away her tools and looked through her house, but doesn't find anything missing. Wilson stated her neighbor, IO, Payton, called police during the night, around 3am, for suspicious people in the neighborhood. I spoke to Payton. She stated there was a dark colored, 4-door car parked at the dead end of the street. She thinks a male was driving. Payton states her husband heard noises and looked out, saw the car and said something to the driver. Payton stated the car then drove away. Wilson and Payton think they interrupted the driver of the car before he could steal any of Wilson's belongings. Wilson is going to have her locks changed today.		REED, S. E.
