LW 1807927 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report	Weinbach. Officers arrived on scene looking for the male. He advised his location and said the females had assaulted him. He was given the case number and told to follow up at the prosecutors office. Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (C), at 5121 Lenape Ln, Evansville, IN, between 08:20, 04/15/2018 and 08:26, 04/15/2018. Reported: 04/15/2018. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to 5121 Lenape Ln Apartment B in reference to a family dispute. Upon arrival, Officers met with a female and a male. The female is the mother of the male and they both live at the residence. According to the mother, she went to the entrance of her son`s room in order to tell him that he needs to do a better job washing his face and hands. The son then got upset about the situation and decided to physically pick up her up and carry her out of the doorway so he could exit the room. During this time, the mother hit her elbow on the wall. The son explained that he was not trying to hurt his mother, but rather just move her away from his room so he could be left alone. The mother informed us that she did not believe he meant to hurt her. She did not report any injuries to me when I asked her. The mother did not feel threatened by her son and did not feel in danger. The mother informed us that things have been going fairly well between the two of them, but he has an occasional temper and can sometimes get verbally argumentative. The son has been living with the mother on and off for a while. She informed me that it would probably be best if he got a job and rented his own place. The mother did say that he should probably leave for the day. After talking with the son, he informed us that he could stay with his friend who lives over in the Esquire Inn for at least the day in order to cool off. I informed the mother that a report would be taken over this matter for documentation purposes. She had no further comments, questions, or concerns about the situation. . No injuries were reported on scene.		EAGLESON, R. C.

Reported: 04/16/2018. I was traveling west on Riverside and observed a black male walking behind the gas station at Riverside and Kentucky. The black male turned around when he saw my patrol car. The male went back inside the gas station. When I passed the gas station the male walked out the gas station and went back behind the gas station. The male returned from behind the gas station and got into a white passenger car. The male was looking suspicious so I initiated a traffic stop on the passenger car at Linwood and waggoner to talk with the male. The male stated that he was hiding from me because he was trying to go behind the building to use the restroom.		GILES, L. L.
