Reported: 05/12/2018. On, 051218 at 0900hrs, subjects working a fund raiser in the, Mead Johnson parking lot, 2401 W Lloyd Exp, called 911 to report, Clark going through vehicles on the lot a yelling for somebody to take her to jail. I arrived and several subjects pointed to Clark and some also had her surrounded. They explained that they were hosting a car test driving fund raiser and Clark had been getting into the vehicles and trying to start them, in hopes of stealing one. They physically had to pull her out of one and held her until I arrived. Paul, stated that she also entered his truck, without permission and attempted to take it. She also took some items out of it, but he got them back. He was unsure if he wanted to file charges on her, but wanted her off the property. He decided that a trespass charge needed to be filed. Earlier, I was dispatched to Sontag and Mt Vernon, where a subject called 911 to report that Clark had entered his vehicle and told him to take her somewhere. He physically had to remove her. I later located her attempting to enter a vehicle in the driveway of, 2718 W Franklin. I pulled up next to her and she stated that she was trying to steal the vehicle. She then opened my back door and advised me to take her to jail. She appeared to need some type of assistance, but she only told me that she was homeless and needed a ride. She could not give me an address to take her. She stated that she was not intoxicated or on medication. She added that she was not suicidal or going to harm anyone. She would not provide me an address or phone number and refused to go to the hospital for a psych evaluation. She stated that she just needed a drink and she would be alright. I transported her to Hardees on W Illinois St. She went inside. A short time later I was dispatched to the Mead Johnson parking lot, where she again was acting irrational. I placed her under arrest for Trespass and disorderly Conduct and transported her to VCCC.		PHELPS, J. W.
