Reported: 07/09/2018. On 070918 at approximately 1016 hours, Officer Fendel and I were dispatched to Condi Electric at 1722 S. Kentucky in reference to a theft in progress. Dispatch advised that a white female was behind the business stealing items. We arrived approximately two minutes later and met with the owner`s brother. He described the suspect as a white female approximately 30 years old. When confronted she carried the items to a silver Jeep Cherokee that was parked in a vacant lot to the east of the alley. He said she backed through the yard and went south on New York. At that time it was unclear what was taken and if the owner would want a report. At 1021 hours, we were dispatched to 2000 S. New York in reference to hit and run that just occurred. We arrived a short time later and spoke to the victim and witnesses. The victim said she was sleeping in the back bedroom when she was awakened by a loud crash. File, who also stays at 2000 S. New York came outside as the suspect was leaving. He was able to get the plate (941NIK) which returned to a silver 1999 Jeep Cherokee. Clayton was inside his house when he heard the crash. He went out to his back yard to see the suspect vehicle going south in the alley. He described the driver as a white female with blonde streaks in her hair, 20-30 years old and wearing a blue shirt. She flipped him off as she went by. File attempted to follow her in his vehicle. He said they essentially went around the block. He said he lost her when she ran a stop sign at Kentucky and continued north to Riverside. Officer McDowell was flagged down and was advised that the suspect vehicle was Crabapple Circle. He found the vehicle behind the residence. The vehicle had extensive front end damage. The vehicle was locked. In the rear of the vehicle, I could see at least four of what appeared to be starters or alternators. The vehicle was towed to Tri-State. We attempted to make contact with Condi Electric but it was closed for the holiday. The victim has surveillance video of the accident however did not know how to download it. A CSU media service request was completed.		MCCONNELL, J.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
[am]	The victim stated the offenders located him at the river front where they attacked him. The victim had an abrasion injury to his left elbow and the side of his abdomen from that fight. The victim stated the two offenders attacked him over a dispute with his girlfriend, with whom one of the offenders was recently involved. The victim told officers on scene he did not wish to persue charges and did not provide them suspect information. The two offenders then showed up at this address to continue the fight. According to the resident, the two offenders parked on the street and began yelling and cussing. The resident stated the two walked to her front door; she believed they intended to make entry into her home so she closed and locked the door. The two left after threatening everyone there and driving through the yard. The victim`s girlfriend took video of the verbal altercation at this address. The victim and resident stated offender 1, the passenger, had a small silver-colored handgun. The video showed something in his hand, but it was unclear what it was. No one on scene could articulate a time where the offender threatened with the firearm or pointed it at anyone. The two offenders left in a silver passenger car.
