Reported: 09/19/2018. Officers were called to a holdup in progress. Officers made contact with the victim who stated they were working the drive through at work and the suspect pulled up to the intercom and asked about apple pies and the rest was difficult to understand. The victim told the suspect to pull around so she could try to communicate better. When the suspect pulled up to the window the victim noticed a black revolver and a black semi automatic handgun in the passenger seat. The suspect asked the victim if they would make a deal as they grabbed a black duffel bag from the back of the vehicle and opened it, showing the victim gallon bags of marijuana. The suspect offered to give the victim a bag of marijuana in exchange for the apple pies. The victim told the suspect they could not make a deal like that. The suspect then grabbed a third gun that had been sitting on his lap and held it up and said he was not afraid of the cops or snitches. The victim asked what the suspect wanted and he stated 2 apple pies. The victim told the suspect she would go let the kitchen know to hurry as to not draw attention to the suspect. While the victim was away from the window the suspect began hitting on the window. The victim returned and the suspect asked what was taking so long and pointed the black revolver, that had been sitting on his lap, at the victim. The suspect stated the kitchen was trying to hurry. The victim told officers she asked another employee in the restaurant to come back to the window with her because she did not want any issues. The witness told officers when he approached the drive through window and observed two handguns in the passenger seat and the duffel bag of marijuana.		WILSON, T. G.

	The victim then gave the suspect the food in a bag. The suspect then took the pies out and acted as if he was putting marijuana in the bag. He then gave it back to the victim. Before the suspect left, the victim told him that she smoked too and wanted his number for a hook up. The suspect gave her his number before pulling away from the window. After the suspect left, the victim stated when she looked in the bag, it was empty. The suspect circled back around the restaurant and drove by the drive through window a second time before leaving. The witness also told officers the suspect left the scene and drove north on 1st Ave and pulled in to the Circle K. The victim's only description of the vehicle was a 4D, dark color possibly red, passenger vehicle.
