	I, Officer J. Holden, was working in EPD Records when a run was dispatched to 2000 S Boeke Rd reference a harassment report. I contacted the victim via TX. The victim stated his father has advance stages of Alzheimers and a woman has been taking advantage of him. The victim stated he got his father`s bank statements and realized this woman has taken $60,000 dollars from him over the past year. The victim stated his father did sign all checks, but he is trying to explain to him (his father) he cannot give this woman any more money.
	The victim stated his father promised the female subject he would pay her Vectren bill for her, but she was told to never come back onto the property earlier in the day. The victim stated a knock at the door came, and his father`s medical assistant answered the door, and let the suspect inside. The victim stated the suspect is the woman`s boyfriend, and he was coming over to collect money to pay the Vectren bill.
	The victim stated to make his father happy, he gave the suspect $340 dollars cash to pay the Vectren bill. The victim stated once he gave the cash to the suspect, the suspect got in his face and stated "If you ever talk to my girlfriend like that again, I'll take you out."
	The victim stated he wanted to press charges against the man for the threat.
	I spoke with a witness who confirmed the incident and stated the suspect got up in the victim`s face and said "If you ever get in my girlfriends face again, I'll take you out."
	The victim was given a case number and advised how to follow up on charges.
