Weapon Or Bodily Injury	Officers were dispatched to a hold up report at 120 W Michigan St apt 118. The victim stated that an acquaintance came over to borrow some money. He went to give him forty dollars and the male grabbed the rest of the money out of his hand, which was 200 dollars. The male then took out a silver handgun and pointed at him and started to walk out. On his way out the door, he pointed the gun at three people in the living room and told them all to stay seated. He then walked out of the apartment. They called 911 when it happened but then stated that they would just take care of it themselves. The victim stated he wanted to take care of it but couldn't so he called again. We talked to the victims and got the information. The suspect was a white male in his late twenties and was wearing a grey hooded sweatshirt and jeans. The victim's brother stated the suspect lived next door to him. He lives at 416 and stated the male lived at the house to the left (West). When we couldnt find anyone at that address in the system we went to verify the address. The victim's brother stated that he didn't know if the male actually lived there, he just saw him on the fence last night. The victim then said that he doesn't live there and that he is the "doorman". None of them knew which unit he would be in. They were not able to come up with the last name for the suspect. We did go by the address which has multiple units and there was no lights on. Detectives were called and said to just do a report. The victim said the gun was a silver .25 auto.

Reported: 02/04/2019. No victims listed. On 02/04/2019 at approximately 2028 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to 424 Kimber Ln. in reference to a general complaint. Upon arrival I spoke with IO1. IO1 stated that IO2, his fiance, was home with her children and someone was knocking very forcefully at the back door of the residence. IO1 stated that whomever was forcefully knocking on the door, wrote out the word "DIE", using what smelled to be hot sauce. IO1 stated that IO3, who is IO1's neighbor, observed a vehicle with two subjects in it, parked in front of her residence. I then spoke with IO3. IO3 stated that she observed an older model, light colored Dodge Intrepid, containing two subjects, parked in front of her apartment. IO3 stated that she did not think much of it, and went back toward her living room area. IO3 stated that she heard the loud knocking on her neighbors' door, and looked out of her front window, where she observed one of the two subjects get into the vehicle as if he/she had exited the vehicle. IO3 stated that the vehicle fled immediately afterward. IO3 stated that she was unable to obtain any further information.		SMITH, R. A.
