LW 1921693 Battery- Hff                      Domestic [am]	responded to assist. A silver 2006 Pontiac G6 passenger car was stopped, a child was observed in the backseat, later identified as an involved other. The female driver of the vehicle, later identified as both an offender and a victim, was asked to step out of the vehicle and separated from a male passenger, also identified as both an offender and a victim. Two witnesses stayed nearby and spoke with officers. A small abrasion was observed on the male`s left wrist. No injuries were observed on the female, however she had numerous scabs on a recent tattoo. It was obvious the abrasions were not from the dispute, the tattoo was in old scar tissue. It was learned both the male and female were in a domestic relationship for a few years and had a child in common, however the child in the backseat was not. During the course of the investigation, it was learned the female driver had received information from a friend about her boyfriend, the male passenger, having an affair with a female acquaintance. The female driver admitted she took her boyfriend`s cellular phone and placed it between her legs as she drove in order to look through it at a later time in search of evidence involving the alleged affair. She stated her boyfriend got defensive and was trying to get his cellular phone, but she would not allow it. She stated the altercation was only verbal and did not get physical, other than each person trying to maintain or gain possession of the cellular phone. Two witnesses observed the altercation in the vehicle and stated it appeared both the male and the female were grabbing at something or each other. Physical strikes were not observed. The female had no fingernails long enough to cause the abrasion observed on her boyfriend`s wrist, which he stated he scraped on an object in the vehicle as he attempted to get his cellular phone from his girlfriend. Given the totality of the circumstances, officers did not feel an arrest was needed. However, a domestic violence incident report was submitted to the EPD Domestic Violence Investigation Unit for follow-up if needed. No arrests were made at time of report.	Gilmore, Jamie Tanette (W F, 43) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 1705 S Boeke Rd, Evansville, IN, between 16:29, 10/01/2019 and 16:33, 10/01/2019.
