Dogs Loose /attack	Witness lives behind the victim. She saw two pit bull dogs pacing outside the victims fence trying to get in. She put away her own dogs and then came back outside. Witness saw the male dog (Ace) go under the fence and then the female dog (Lola) followed. The two pit bulls attacked two dogs that were inside the fence in the victims back yard.
	When I arrived the witness flagged me down and showed me to the back yard. One pit had the victims dog by the throat, the other pit was trying to tear the limbs off. The owner of 822 Chandler came out the back door and was visibly upset. I told her to go inside and shut the door. One of the owners other dogs had been attacked as well, but had retreated to the home while the two pits in question were tearing the other dog apart.
	I had drawn my gun and was about to shoot the two pits, when the owner /suspect of the pits came up and asked if her two dogs were there. I told her to get them before I had to shoot them. After the owner /suspect of the pits gained control of them I had to follow her back to her house. The suspect was not forthcoming with information. She was hostile toward me and Sgt Kormelink. She refused to show her ID and if I had not followed her on foot back to , I would not be able to tell Animal Control where the two pits were located. The suspect spoke to the Animal Control Officer, but was hostile toward Police. The Reported: 10/12/2019. Officers met with the involved parties of a civil incident over property damage at the Shine On Car Wash. Whitney Spainhoward stated that while her Toyota 4Runner was being washed, the track pushed her vehicle into the rear of Gabriel Lamar's Ford F150, which had gotten stuck halfway through the car wash. The Assistant General Manager, Brandon Hawkins, told officers that this occurred due to an employee error, and the business assumed full responsibility and would make it right. Spainhoward's vehicle had damage to the front bumper. Lamar stated that his vehicle did not sustain any damage. Spainhoward requested a report be filed for documentation.		WOLF, D. C.

LW 1922630 Theft- Shoplifting < $750	Walmart N Burkhardt, Store #1263 VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:30, 10/12/2019 and 15:38, 10/12/2019. Reported: 10/12/2019. Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Road (Walmart) in regard to a shoplifting that had occurred. Upon arriving, I spoke with the reporter who works as a loss prevention officer at Walmart. The reporter advised he observed the offender walk up to a self-checkout counter to checkout. He noticed the offender had three workout supplement containers in his possession to scan, as well as some Kool-Aid packets. The offender placed the Kool-Aid packets over the supplement containers' barcodes in an attempt to disguise stealing the supplement containers. The offender scanned the Kool-Aid packets and acted like he scanned the supplement containers. The offender then placed the unpaid supplement containers into a Walmart bag, rendered payment only for the Kool-Aid packets, walked passed all points of purchase, and exited the store using the grocery entrance/exit. The reporter advised he was able to stop the offender after he exited the store. The reporter was able to recover the stolen merchandise. The offender was escorted to the Walmart loss prevention office. I properly placed the offender in custody and read him the Miranda Warning. The offender advised he understood his rights and agreed to speak with me. The offender admitted that he stole the products because they were expensive and he could not pay for them. The reporter advised the stolen/recovered merchandise costed $56.63 (before adding taxes). The offender was provided with a citation for the offense and was released from the scene. The reporter was provided with a case number for his reference.		EAGLESON, R. C.

Custody Dispute	On 10/12/2019, at approximately 15:27 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 5204 N Harlan Avenue in reference to a custody dispute. The caller reported his ex-wife had violated her visitation stipulations, stating her visits were supposed to be supervised.
	Officers arrived on scene and met with the caller, identified as the victim. He reported this afternoon, his father identified as the witness, was at Franklin Lanes for a bowling league and observed the victim's ex-wife's parents, both identified as involved parties, at the bar of the business. When the witness observed them at the business, he looked around for the victim's ex-wife, identified as the offender, and children. When he did not see them, he called the victim and reported what he observed.
	With the above information, the victim called his teenage son and spoke with him. His son reported they were at the fall festival, but was getting on a ride with a friend away from his mother and sister. He reported his sister, the victim's daughter, was still with their mother, the offender. The victim reported his
