LW 2006342 Narc-poss Sch I,ii,iii,iv	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Sch I,ii,iii,iv (C), at 509 N Saint Joseph Ave, Evansville, IN, on 03/28/2020, 20:42. Reported: 03/28/2020. Officers were dispatched to the listed address for a 911 Hangup. Upon arrival the reporter was waiting in the hallway of the complex and stated her neighbor had been banging on her wall. Officers made contact with the suspect and he stated that he and a friend were inside the apartment. I asked where his friend was and he stated "He`s in here." The suspect then turned and walked away from the door and into the apartment. At this time Officer Beard and I followed the suspect into the apartment for officer safety and to check the welfare of the one who had possibly injured themselves by colliding with the wall. We observed a male, Jeffery Martin, who appeared to be passed out, sitting at a table. Martin had a red mark on his forehead. While we were speaking to the two men we observed a baggie of a powder-like substance, that the suspect later said was "chem", an agent used on K2, sitting on the table along with a green leafy substance that was not in a baggie also on the table. The two men were placed in handcuffs at this time. As the suspect stood up from his chair Ofc. Vanleave located a baggie of a green leafy substance that the suspect was sitting on. The suspect signed a consent to search form for his apartment. While Officers searched I read the Miranda warning to Martin. Martin stated that he did not know whose drugs were on the table. Ofc. Beard read the Miranda warning to the suspect, who claimed ownership of the drugs and also a glass pipe that is used for smoking narcotics in a closet. Also during the search an unused needle was located in a green lunch bag that belonged to Martin. Martin stated that he did not know it was in the bag and that he did not use needles. The needle was taken as found property and disposed of on my body camera. After the suspect had admitted to the drugs and paraphernalia he stated that Martin had "freaked out" and struck the wall. The suspect was cited for the narcotics and paraphernalia.		STEPRO, A. D.

Officers spoke with several surrounding neighbors who all heard anywhere from 5-10 shots. The reporters were not able to provide any suspect information. Officers located several vehicles that had bullet hole damage. There was one home that also had bullet hole damage. There were no injuries reported. CSU was contacted to retrieve 10 shell casings found in the area.		FAHSE, A. G.
LW 2006345 Animal Complaint	Animal Complaint (C), at 3501 Little Creek Pkwy, Evansville, IN, between 22:00, 03/28/2020 and 22:10, 03/28/2020. Reported: 03/28/2020. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to an animal complaint. Upon arrival, the reporter met officers in the street with blood on his hands. The reporter stated the blood was from his cat. The reporter stated he observed a black male pitbull (not neutered) attack his cat. The reporter went over to the pitbull and grabbed him by his silver chained collar. The reporter pulled the dog off of his cat, breaking the dogs collar. The reporter stated the dog then took off running away from his home. The reporter stated his cat died shortly after the attack. Officers observed the silver chained collar with no tags. Officers also observed the deceased cat in the reporters driveway. Officers asked the reporter if he has seen the dog before. The reporter stated he has not seen the dog before today. The reporter was told to call officers if they see the dog again. Officer searched the area, but were unable to locate the dog at this time.
LW 2006347 Battery - Moderate Inj	Walls, Daniel Keith (B M, 61) VICTIM of Battery - Moderate Inj (C), at 1013 S Bedford Ave, Evansville, IN, between 22:53, 03/28/2020 and 22:56, 03/28/2020. Reported: 03/28/2020. Officers were dispatched to the intersection of Washington/Kerth in reference to an assault in progress. The victim told dispatch that the offender had attacked him with an edged weapon and that he was following her on foot. Dispatch told him to stop but he refused and I was unable to locate him upon arrival. He contacted dispatch one more time and said that he could see the offender in the parking lot of the CVS at Washington/41. I arrived and located the victim on Adams just West of the CVS parking lot. The victim informed me that the offender had just gotten a ride from someone and he had written down the plate and said he last saw the vehicle traveling South on Gilbert. I relayed the vehicle information to additional responding units. I asked the victim to tell me what happened and he informed me that the offender was his ex-girlfriend and that the two had been at his home this evening. He said that she is "crazy" and that at one point for no reason she began hitting herself with the handle side of a box cutter. He said that she threatened to cut herself and he told her that he would stop her if she tried. He said that for absolutely no reason she struck him in the right bicep with the handle side of the cutter. After the strike she ran and he followed. He said he could hear her calling for a ride because she has a felony warrant issued for her arrest and she was trying to stay away from the police. I asked him to show me his injury. He was wearing a button up purple shirt which he removed to show me some dry blood on his right bicep. I couldn't see a laceration and told him of my observation. He repeated that she did not "cut" him but she "struck" him causing the bleed. The blood was dry and so much so that I couldn't see it through the shirt. The victim was becoming		JACKSON, J.
