LW 1118339 Animal Cruel-abandon / Neg [am]	Society VICTIM of Animal Cruel-abandon / Neg [am] (C), at 1001 Macarthur Cir, Evansville, IN, between 18:20, 09/05/2011 and 18:25, 09/05/2011. Reported: 09/05/2011. I was dispatched in reference to an animal complaint. Upon arrival, I met IO1 - A. Market(neighbor) and IO2, D. Baker (animal control officer). They both informed me that there was a deceased small brown dog in a kennel in the backyard of the dispatched address and another small white dog that was still alive but severely malnourished(according to the animal control officer). Both the deceased dog and the living dog were dirty and extremely thin. Also, neither animal had access to food or water. Mr. Market stated that the offender was the sole caregiver of the animals and had told him several times that he was going to find homes for the dogs. Mr. Market also stated that several times over a period of a few months that he himself would walk out his back door and let the animals out of their kennels to use the bathroom. Officer Baker took photographs of the animals and their living conditions. Officer Baker was provided with a case number.		KENNEDY, A. M.
LW 1118343 Incident Rpt Misc	Lamping, (W F, 39) VICTIM of Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 7409 E Olive St, Evansville, IN, on 09/05/2011, 18:49. Reported: 09/05/2011. I, Officer McCormick, was dispatched to 7904 E Olive reference a custody dispute. I spoke with the mother of the child, Lamping, who stated she wanted to pick up her child and the father, Church, does not have paternity established through the courts and has no custody. I then spoke with Church and he provided me with a paternity affidavit that was signed by Church and Lamping in 2009 when the child was born. Church then provided me with a document that showed he had half physical custody for the child. Church stated that he had only had the child for three days. Church stated that he was going to take the child to child care in the morning (9/6) and Lamping was to pick her up. It was later found that the paternity paper work was not a court document signed by a judge. Also the document that stated that both Lamping and Church had half physical custody was also not signed by a judge. Therefore the child went with Lamping. Chuch stated that every time he gives the child to Lamping she(the child) gets visibly upset. During the transfer of the child, the child did appear upset. Lamping stated that she was that way because she was tired and has not seen her mother in four days.		MCCORMICK, A.
