Victim has a temporary protective order (82D03-1203-PO-1349) against suspect, which was served on 3/19/12. It is valid from 3/19/12 to 4/17/12. Victim called today and said that suspect had just broken into her garage and taken a lawn mower and a weed-eater. She said he entered through a boarded window and left out the back door. Corporal M. Winters located the suspect about a half block away with a lawn mower and a weed-eater. Victim said that he always breaks into the garage and takes things, all of which actually belong to him. Victim said she and relatives previously boarded the garage windows, but suspect kicked-in and broke one of them prior to this run. Victim then had a relative prop-up the board and stack a bunch of items in front of it to prevent suspect from entering. When I checked the window and the inside of the garage, the items were still stacked and it did not appear that suspect could have made entry without knocking over the items. There was also a spider web across a portion of one of the four open window panes. I asked the victim if she actually saw the suspect on her property today and she said she did not. She also said that the last time the missing lawn mower was used/seen was on Sunday, when her son mowed the yard. Corporal Winters and I explained to victim that we couldn't arrest the suspect today because no one saw him on the property and that he could have taken the lawn mower before today.
