Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	V1 and V2 were driving south on 41 just past Virginia. The suspect was also driving south on 41 behind V1 and next to V2. The suspect was driving too fast for the very slick winter road conditions and rear ended V1. That collision caused the suspect to swerve and collide with V2. All involved stopped on 41 over the Lloyd Expressway. None were injured and property damage to all cars was non incapacitating. V1 walked back to the suspect's car to check on him. The suspect appeared uninjured. The suspect said he was driving too fast and was drunk. A minute later, the suspect took off running on foot northwest before officers arrived. He was not located. See the officer narrative for the suspect description given by V1. A witness stopped and told Officer R. Winters what happened, which was the same story given by V1 and V2. V1 and V2 were given a case number and told how to get copies of the report. The suspect vehicle was towed by Tri-state towing to their property.
