LW 1402525 Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report	Vehicle was parked on the employee parking lot on said date between the hours of 1430-2230hrs and while it was parked and unoccupied the vehicle was hit and damaged. VICTIM of Battery-domestic Violence Incident Report (A), at Evansville, IN, on 02/05/2014, 23:07. Reported: 02/05/2014.  The subjects involved have been married for 19 years. I spoke to the male who told me that the female is nuts and tonight she used a stick to beat her way into the bathroom. The male was in the bathroom holding the door closed. There was a mirror on the door that was jarred loose and broken when the female beat on the door and the male sustained 2 scratches on his right arm.  The female states that the male, who is diabetic and in poor health, has been high on meth for the last 4 days. He has not slept and, she says, won't shut up. She stated that she just wants him to shut up and let her sleep. She has to work tomorrow. The female is visibly upset and highly agitated to the point of appearing to be on the edge of a nervous breakdown. She does have an appointment to speak to her doctor this coming Monday. She intends on taking her tax return and getting an apartment of her own in order to get away from her husband and his bad habits.  The male has been drinking and there was evidence of narcotic use. His ash tray was full of tobacco that was still in the cylinder shape of the blunt it was removed from. His speech was slurred, and he appears to be in poor health generally. He could not sit still and may be on the narcotics his wife said he was on. He was transported to his brothers house. He initially gave me the wrong address.		KEMMERER, D. A.
