Reported: 03/06/2014. I was dispatched to 509 N. St. Joseph Ave. (White Oak Manor) with Officer Minto in reference to a fight in progress. We arrived and spoke to victim #1, Robert Barfield, and the witness, Kimberly McCoy. Barfield said the suspect, Joel Barnett, was upset with him because Barnett thinks Barfield supplied "moonshine" to Barnett's girlfriend (not present). Barnett said Barfield tried to kiss Barnett's girlfriend after she got drunk. Apparently this all happened the night before (030514). Barfield said he was drinking coffee in the lounge on the first floor this morning around 0900 hours. He said Barnett confronted him about the incident the evening before involving his girlfriend. Barfield said he told Barnett he deleted his girlfriend's number from his phone. So, the two of them got into the elevator to go to Barfield's apartment to look at the phone. Barfield said while they were in the elevator Barnett grabbed his face and pressed fingers into his eyes, and shoved him. Barfield said after going into his apartment and looking at the phone the two of them left his apartment and walked back to the elevator. Barfield said while standing there Barnett shoved him really hard into the wall next to the elevator. Barfield said he smashed into the drywall causing a large hole. The witness, McCoy, said she had just gotten off the elevator and observed Barnett shove Barfield into the wall. At this time Barnett went back to his apartment. Officer Minto and I went to Barnett's apartment to speak to him. Barnett had a local misdemeanor warrant and was taken into custody by Officer Minto to be taken to VCC. I met with the property manager, Angela Riley, and gave her the case number for the report. She advised she would pass the case number on to Barfield.		SMITH, K. E.
