LW 1422499	Theft All Other < $750	Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a domestic violence. The caller was the OF's girlfriend and she advised dispatch that she had locked herself and her small child in the bathroom because she was scared for her life. The female advised dispatch that the OF had choked her yesterday and had told her that if she called police, he would harm her and tear up the house even more than he already did. The female advised dispatch that the OF had three outstanding warrants out for his arrest and was in the garage. Officers arrived on scene and located the OF in the garage. Officers took the OF into custody after the OF gave a false name to officers. The female (VI) advised me that her live in boyfriend, the OF, choked her yesterday to the point that she became unconscious. The female advised that the OF told her that if she called the police, he would hurt her and tear up the house. On today's date, she stated that the WI dropped the VI and her three year old daughter off at the house. The OF and the female victim started arguing again while the child was holding the victim's hand. The victim advised that the OF shoved her out of the way and spit on her before returning to the garage. The victim then went and called for police. The OF has had a prior conviction for domestic battery and is a Domestic Violence Felony Candidate. The OF was mirandized on camera and stated that he understood his rights. The OF denied that the couple had been arguing over the past two days and stated that he did not do anything to the victim. I attempted to contact the witness three times, but he could not be reached at the time of this report. The OF was booked on the listed charges as well as two outstanding felony warrants and one misdemeanor warrant. See affidavit.	NEIGHBORS, K.
