LW 1423070 Criminal Mischief	Feldhaus, Thomas L. (W M, 70) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief (C), at 1509 S Bosse Ave, Evansville, IN, on 10/01/2014, 08:00. Reported: 10/14/2014. The victim is the landlord of this property. He says his elderly tenants moved out a few weeks ago and he went over and noticed that there are 6 windows busted out. 1 in the front and 5 in the back. Some were shot and some were broken with rocks. He needed this report for insurance purposes.	DOWNS, C. G.
LW 1423039 Alc-public Intox [bm]	Society VICTIM of Alc-public Intox [bm] (C), at 1600 W Florida St, Evansville, IN, between 00:30, 10/14/2014 and 04:15, 10/14/2014. Reported: 10/14/2014. I was dispatched to 1600 W Florida St. at approximately 0030 hours in reference to a family dispute. When I arrived it was discovered that the three adult residents of the apartment had been involved in an argument. The defendant who I identified a John Chumley indicated that he was willing to leave, but he was highly intoxicated. As the defendant spoke I observed the odor of alcoholic beverages coming from his breath. His speech was slurred and difficult to understand. I had to repeat myself numerous times, and he had difficulty maintaining his balance. After a brief discussion the other male who was involved stated that he would leave instead due to the defendant's level of intoxication. The defendant agreed to stay in the apartment for the night. Officers were dispatched a second time at approximately 0315 hours in reference to another family dispute. When I arrived the defendant was in the process of moving his belongings from the upstairs apartment to the first floor. He indicated that he had planned to go to a family member's home with his belongings due to the continual arguing. The defendant did not have any means to transport his belongings, and I advised him that he could return during daytime hours to retrieve his property. While the defendant was still intoxicated, he had sobered up to some degree and indicated that he would be able to walk to his destination without any problem. Because I could still observe signs of intoxication the defendant was warned not to cause any disturbances while he walked to his destination. I explained that if he caused any additional problems that he would be arrested. The defendant indicated that he understood and voluntarily walked away. I remained in the area for several minutes, and observed the defendant standing at the edge of the alley just east of the apartment. The defendant was peeking around the corner and when he did not locate my vehicle he ran across the road toward the apartment. I walked back to the apartment to ensure that the defendant was not causing another disturbance. I did not locate the defendant in the apartment and began to check the area for him. I located the defendant hiding behind a garage several doors down from his address on someone else's property. The defendant was taken into custody, and transported to the confinement center. During transport the defendant stated that he had returned to the area to retrieve the rest of the alcohol which was still inside the apartment.	WARD, M. R.
