I was dispatched to the above location in reference to a Theft Report. On scene, I spoke to the Reporting Party, later identified as L. Roll. Roll works at the above location as a front desk clerk. Roll advised that at approximately 2020 hours tonight, she was working at the front desk when she was approached by a male who was asking about directions to local resturants. Roll described the male as a white man, approximately 5-10 to 6-00 tall, with dirty blonde hair that was cut close to his head. Roll added that the male was wearing a white long sleeved shirt and blue jeans. Roll stated while talking to the male, she received a call from a room and had to leave the front desk to go upstairs and take care of a complaint. Roll stated she locked the cash drawer and put the key in another drawer before leaving the front desk area (per the motel`s policy). Roll stated when she came back down, she noticed the male had left. About an hour later, she realized she did not have her key and the drawer was still locked. Roll continued she then went into the manager`s office and got a spare key and opened the cash drawer only to find it was empty. Roll stated there was approximately $550.00 missing from the drawer. Roll stated surveillance video would be available if needed. Roll was given the case number.
