LW 1500560 Invasion Of Privacy [am]	[missing name] VICTIM of Invasion Of Privacy [am] (C), at 704 S Harlan Ave, Evansville, IN, on 01/08/2015, 13:15. Reported: 01/08/2015.  The Rp is in the process of a divorce against the suspect. He has a restraining order against the suspect that does not cover the kids, 82D051412PO6043. On todays date the suspect had a neighbor, Adrienne Burdick, come over to the Rp's house and asked the witness if the 5 yr old son of the Rp/Suspect is riding home from school on the bus. She told the witness (Rp's mother) that the school (Culver) called her and asked if the boy was supposed to ride the bus. The Rp called the school and spoke to the secretary about this and she said that they did not call the neighbor and that they only have a phone number for the Rp, not anyone else. The Rp contacted the bus service this morning for the school and told them that his son would be riding the bus home.  Earlier in the week a proposal was brought up that the suspect might get the children for visitation on todays date. Her attorney never responded to the proposal so the Rp does not know why the mother is trying to contact the suspect. The suspects mother also texted the Rp about whether the child was riding		DOWNNS, C. G.

		Officers with the Evansville Police Department were working off duty at Shannon Glenn Apartments. While conducting a walk through of one of the building, officers noticed loud music coming from 5081 Tippecanoe. As officers got closer to the door an odor of burnt marijuana could be smelled at the door frame of the apartment. Officers asked for assistance before conducting a knock and talk. Officers eventually knocked on the door and were greeted by IO1. When IO1 opened the door the smell of burnt marijuana could be smelled inside. When officers entered the apartment they observed the suspect and IO1's daughter inside the apartment. Officers asked who lived at the apartment and IO1 stated that only she and her daughter lived at the apartment. Officers spoke with IO1 and asked for consent to search which was granted by IO1. During a consent search a small bag of green leafy substance was located in a bedroom on the floor next to a mattress. Officers asked whose bedroom was this at which time the suspect stated "did you all find my bag?". The suspect indicated that she had stayed in the room the night before and took responsibility for the bag of green leafy substance which she indicated was marijuana. Officers cited the suspect and took possession of the small bag of green leafy substance. The bag of green leafy substance was transported to the JTF office where it was processed. The bag of green leafy substance had a field weight of 4.5 grams and tested positive for THC.

Officers were dispatched to 1801 N. Greenriver (O'Brians Bar) in reference to two males refusing to leave the bar. When the officers arrived the two males were told to leave the bar and wait for someone to pick them up rather than driving home. The males left the bar and went to a nearby gas station to wait for their ride. O'Brians staff later called and stated that the males had returned and were causing problems inside. When the officers arrived the offender was found in the parking lot of the bar visibly intoxicated.		GEORGE, W. T.

Officers were called to the area of 1320 Lee Ct in reference to a fight in progress. Upon arrival, officers found the offender on the lot. Despite being given several chances to leave the area, the offender refused to do so and was arrested.		BURRIS, D. W.
LW 1500599 Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, &lt; 30 G [am]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, < 30 G [am] (C), at N Third Ave/w Virginia St, Evansville, IN, between 01:02, 01/09/2015 and 01:10, 01/09/2015. Reported: 01/09/2015.  Offender was operating a vehicle westbound on Virginia St and the rear lights were not functioning. I stopped the vehicle and approached the drivers side window. I could smell the odor of burnt marijuana coming from the inside of the vehicle. Offender opened the drivers side door and I asked for his drivers license. Offender handed me his license and I asked him where the marijuana was. Offender said that there was weed in his jacket pocket. I had Offender step out of the vehicle and I placed him in handcuffs. I recovered a small plastic baggy containing a green leafy substance from Offenders left inside coat pocket. Offender was cited and released. The green leafy substance tested positive for THC. The marijuana was placed into evidence.		PROCTOR, J. L.

	This couple is married and have a child together.
	Female states that she found out that the male is messing around on her and confronted him about it. She states there was alot of yelling and she pushed him while he was on the couch. She says he picked her up and threw her on the couch. She has no visible injuries and states that she is not injured but that the male was grabbing her all over.
	Male states that he is not messing around but has been texting his ex wife and the female got upset about it. He was laying on the couch and she started yelling at and pushing him. He states that she grabbed his shirt, which is torn, and hit him in the face. He admitted pushing her down but says he did it because she was hitting him.
	The female says she was grabbed all over but has a sunburn so its not visible. No other complaints.
	The male has a torn shirt, a small red mark under his right eye, and scratches on his left arm. The female says the shirt was torn and the scratches were because she was holding on as he threw her on the couch.
	Neither party wanted to pursue charges against the other. The male agreed to leave and went elsewhere for the night.
