Reported: 01/07/2015. I, Officer Anna Gray, have been dealing with issues concerning Miskinis. I have been concerned for her welfare. Because the temperature on today's date was 11 degrees, I was worried that Miskinis did not have heat. I was also notified by a mutual friend that Miskinis fell down over the past few days and might be injured. I went to the address to check on her. Miskinis did not answer the door initially, but I found her climbing out of her window. She did have on a coat, but it was a thin coat and had short pants on that did not cover her ankles. I told Miskinis that I am concerned about her not having heat in her home. Miskinis said that she is going to stay in an apartment for the next few weeks during the cold temperature. I pleaded with Miskinis to let Vectren turn on the gas meter, but she does not want them in her house, due to her mess. Miskinis had a visible injury to her head. She told me she did fall down and had to get stitches. She also said she hurt her arm and thought it was out of socket. Miskinis said she had received medical attention when she fell, but wanted to follow up at Easter Seals Rehab Center. She was going to walk there, but I took Miskinis to the Rehab Center due to the cold weather. I am going to check back on Miskinis at a later date. [01/07/2015 16:26,		GRAY, A. M.
