Reported: 01/06/2015. The reporter stated one of his workers was closing up for the evening when a large delivery style truck pulled onto the lot. He stated the driver of the truck pulled near the door and made a signal to the worker asking if the business was closed and the worked signaled to him yes. He stated the driver of the truck then pulled around the pumps to leave the lot. He stated as the driver was leaving he went under the awning which is marked 12'6". He stated as the driver was doing so he hit the underside of the awning causing damage to the underside and breaking light fixtures. He stated his worker went outside to try and flag the driver down, but the driver left going South on Burkhardt.		JORDAN, D. L.
