LW 1504029	Goodwill Industries W Lloyd VICTIM of Theft Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 4660 W Lloyd Expy, Evansville, IN, between 14:45, 02/25/2015 and 14:54, 02/25/2015. Reported: 02/25/2015. I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to the Goodwill on W. Lloyd Expressway in reference to a shoplifter. When I arrived, I was met by witness/store patron, McDaniel, and the reporter/employee, Smith. McDaniel told me she observed a female with a cartfull of items walk right out of the store and begin putting things into a vehicle. McDaniel said she alerted employees that a female had just walked out of the store without paying for a cart full of items. At that time, Smith went outside and observed the woman getting into the passenger side of a vehicle. Smith said there was a white male driver and he backed up so quickly that he actually struck the cart that the woman had fled the store with. There were still items on the bottom rack of the cart which the female did not place into her vehicle. Smith recovered these items. He said there was no video surveillance at the store. While I was speaking with McDaniel, she pointed out two individuals and a small child walking away from the Goodwill. McDaniel said the two were with the suspect female; however, they did not attempt to steal anything or flee the store. I made contact with these two individuals at Schnucks. The female identified herself as Cindy Coffman (RMS confirmed). The male identified himself as Dennis France with an Indiana ID card. Coffman told me that she was aware of what happened at Goodwill, but that she was not involved. She told me the female suspect was her sister. Coffman told me that she and France were at Wal-Mart and got a ride from her sister's son. He transported Coffman and France and her small grandchild to Goodwill. She said he told her they were picking up her sister at		BROWN, S. E.

	Goodwill. When they arrived, the suspect was already in the store; however, the son waited outside in the car. After a short while, Coffman told me that she overheard a commotion and saw her sister running out of the store. Coffman said this was supposed to be her ride, but she, France and the child were left in the store. After selecting some of her own items, she said she went to the counter to pay; however, she did not have an ID so had to go to Schnucks to get cash and return to the Goodwill. Coffman was forthcoming and even stated she had an outstanding warrant for her arrest. Independently, France told me that he knew that the female did this all the time and that he just wanted to try and find another ride. I confirmed the information given to me by Coffman and France with Goodwill manager, Smith. Smith was uncertain what exactly was stolen by the suspect, but he did recover those items left on the bottom rack of the cart. The suspect has two outstanding warrants in RMS for shoplift..

Case #	Description	(A)tttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Mr. Stith also showed officers the court ordered paper work (82DO7-1303-JP-157) that states this. Due to a disagreement from the week prior, Ms. Clark sent Mr. Stith a text message stating that since she got their child a day late the week prior to tonights exchange she would not be giving the child back until a day later than the scheduled day this week. Ms. Clark is speaking of case number 15-03602. Mr. Stith was very upset with this. Officers informed Mr. Stith that they would make a report of the dispute and gave him a case number. Mr. Stith advised the child and mother may be in Posey County at a residence. Officers attempted to have dispatch call the mother plus officers called from their own cell phones and no contact could be made with the mother at the time of this report. Mr. Stith was advised if he wished to go to the residence in Posey County to call their dispatch and request a standby at that location.

Reported: 02/26/2015. Officers were dispatched to this address in reference to a welfare check. When officers arrived they could hear yelling coming from room 112. Officers made contact with both subjects inside. The male subject spoke to Officer Vancleave in the hall, and I spoke to the female inside the room. The female stated that she and the male subject got into an altercation because he believed that another male was sending her text messages. The female stated that the male became angry and placed his hands on her and held her against the wall. She stated that when he held her on the wall it caused her to hit her head. The female stated that she was attempting to get away from the male and scratched his face. The female stated that he let her go when she told him that the office was on the other side of the wall and she started yelling for help. The male stated that the altercation started because he was trying to leave to catch the bus and return home so he could go to bed and the female thought he was going to see another female. The male said that the female got mad at him and started grabbing his belongings from him and scratched him in the face. The male subject did have a scratch on the left side of his face. The male subject was placed in custody and transported to VCCC because the female had an active protection order against him. Neither subject was adematte about pressing charges on the other, but the male said if the female presses charges on him then he was going to press charges on her. This was not a domestic relationship due to the subjects not living together, and not having children in common. According to the male subject he and the female were just friends. He said that the female had not lived here for about six months and had just returned two days earlier and called him and asked him to come over to this location. A report was completed and both subjects were given a copy of the case number.		BETZ, D. J.
