Reported: 02/08/2015. Officers observed the listed vehicle on the lot of Simpson's Food Fair at Covert and Lodge. Officers checked the vehicle's registration and verified the registered owner of the vehicle, Shanice L Johnson, was also the person driving the vehicle. Officers checked Johnson's drivers status through BMV/IDACS, and it returned showing Johnson to be suspended for prior offenses (with only a valid Indiana ID card). Officers recognized the vehicle as the same one they had seen Johnson operating about a week prior, and had done the same registration and license check and knew her to be suspended. Officers saw Johnson pull out of the Simpsons lot, drive south on Lodge, west on Cass, south on Marshall, and west on Riverside to 41. Officers initiated a traffic stop at Riverside and 41, Johnson pulled onto the U-Haul lot and parked. Officer Gibson asked Johnson for a driver's license and she stated she didn't have one. Johnson was asked to step out of the vehicle. Johnson was arrested, informed that she was going to jail, and her vehicle would be towed. During search incident to arrest of Johnson's person, Officer Gibson found a burnt cigar containing a green leafy substance (later field testing positive for THC using test kit Duquenois-Levine Reagent with a field weight of .1 gram) in her right front coat pocket. During the tow inventory, Officer Hoehn found a plastic baggie corner containing a green leafy substance (later field testing positive for THC using test kit Duquenois-Levine Reagent with a field weight of .8 gram) in Johnson's vehicle's glove box. After taking inventory of Johnson's vehicle we allowed Johnson's mother to pick up the groceries. Vehicle was towed by Tri-State to their lot. Johnson was transported to jail for booking. While at the jail, Officer Gibson was doing an inventory of Johnson's property for booking. Gibson found a piece of paper containing a corner baggie and loose green leafy substance (field testing positive for THC using test kit Duquenois-Levine Reagent with a field weight of 2.8 grams [without the paper]) in Johnson's purse. All items were placed in Narc drop box.		GIBSON, S. 	contract was for 15 years, and he had been paying for 10 years. Damrath said approximately sometime in early December 2014 he lost his social security benefits and the status was being reviewed. He said he contacted Schiff and told him he was not going to be able to pay the monthly contract payment due to his benefits being lost. Damrath said Schiff was understanding and said he would allow him to stay for a period of time without paying. Damrath said in the meantime he decided to stay at another residence he owns in Kentucky. He said he moved some of his property to this location, but still had a good amount of property at the 200 Missouri St. address. Damrath said on 011215 someone had broken into the house by forcing open the back door. At the time when the police were there he could not find anything missing. Damrath said approximately two weeks ago he told Schiff he had been staying at another residence of his in Kentucky, and said he still had property in the 200 Missouri St address. He told Schiff he would try to get the rest of his property out soon. Damrath said Schiff was fine with that. On 020815 1100 hours Damrath said he went to the Missouri address and discovered some of his property had been discarded in the back yard. He said some of the property had been damaged. He said a portable drill, an indoor tree, and truck parts were all damaged. Damrath also said other items were missing from the inside of the house. He assumes they have been thrown away. He said he has tried to contact Schiff, but cannot get an answer. Damrath tried to call Schiff twice while I was there and got his voicemail both times. Damrath said there has not been an eviction and possibly, if his benefits gets reinstated, that he would keep the house on Missouri St. Schiff has not taken any civil legal action against Damrath. Damrath said he has saved all the texts between he and Schiff, and thinks Schiff did not have the right to enter the residence and throw out his property. I advised Damrath I would take a report and gave him the case number.
